With reference to Bengali language movement of nineteen fifty two in former East Pakistan. Who were John Alexander Dowie, Maria Woodworth-Etter, and Smith Wigglesworth? Who were Charles Price, William Branham, Aimee Semple McPherson, and A.A. Allen? Who were these people who carried the mantle of the healing evangelist in the twentieth century? The era of the great tent meetings and healing revivals was covered with both glory and controversy. Don Stewart experienced it first-hand -- he was mentored by A.A. Allen in the 1960's. His eyewitness accounts, personal remembrances, and documented stories reveal the truth of the tragedies and the triumphs of many of these men and women of God. The day of huge tent meetings may be over, but the mighty power and presence of the Holy Spirit is still in the earth! God is still using human vessels to demonstrate His love and grace to hurting people. Discover how the timeless legacy of these ministers of God continues to affect our Christian culture today and into the next millennium. The Six Steps to the Awakening is all about you discovering your true potential and understanding the fulfillment of yourself made reality. The book will make you think, it may make you laugh, it may even make you cry, but one thing will be for sure. You will come away with an expansion of viewpoints and uncharted territory. The book will show you about the power of your beliefs, and how your beliefs form the reality that you experience. It will teach you about the choices that you make and how they interact in your daily life and it will give you the power to reshape your personality and clearly define this thing called you. The Dyess Story, first published in 1944, is the moving World War II account of William Dyess (1916-1943), a US Army Air Force pilot who was captured by the Japanese in the fall of the Philippines. Dyess then took part in the infamous Bataan Death March, and was a POW at Camps Cabanatuan and O'Donnell before his transfer and eventual escape from the Davao Penal Colony on Mindanao. His horrific story, one of the first to be published in the U.S. during the war, shocked and angered the nation. Illustrated with maps and photographs. Sadly, on December 22, 1943, Dyess was killed in a training accident in California while testing a P-38 fighter; he was only 27 at the time. Sovjetrussisk militærhistorie, krigshistorie, 2.

Includes a certificate of passage for Einstein and Mrs. Hickman to land in San Francisco, dated April 22, 1906. This complete history of the First Crusade places particular emphasis on using eye witness accounts of the happenings as its source. Author August Krey notes that the eye witness accounts written during the time of the Crusades were really the first time since the fall of the Roman Empire that we derived information about life, societal culture and norms in the Middle Ages in Europe. Krey uses this influx of writings to construct an accurate and detailed history of the origins and happenings of the First Crusade. Beskriver bombeflyvinger dag og nat under 2. verdenskrig og det daglige liv p å en bombeflyvestation. This work contains an eyewitness account of the Battle of Hampton Roads, an important naval battle during the Civil War. 'Offers a front row seat at the courts martial of those accused in America's notorious prison abuse scandal.' -Adam Zagorin, senior correspondent, Time Magazine 'A must-read for all those committed to restoring a sense of honor to our country and the Armed Forces of the United States following the national embarrassment of Abu Ghraib. The unlawful directives and policies issued by the senior civilian leaders in the Department of Defense, and their flawed strategy that took our nation to war, set the conditions for abuse that would have disastrous consequences on the war in Iraq and the future of the Middle East. Amazingly, as of this writing, senior leaders have yet to be held accountable. Read this book, become better informed, and energize your elected officials to do the right thing.'

-Major General John Batiste, U.S. Army (Retired) S. G. Mestrovic's story of three principal trials-those of convicted soldiers Lynndie England, Javal Davis, and Sabrina Harman-stands among the most poignant trial narratives ever told. During the trials Mestrovic, an expert witness on behalf of the three soldiers, had access to documents and records unavailable to the press and the public. He reveals the evidence, some suppressed from testimony, that the abuse at Abu Ghraib is part of a widespread pattern of abuse, imported from Guantanamo, that made its way to Afghanistan and Iraq.
