Praying from the word of God is a powerful way to pray, but how can you learn to do it? This booklet provides some scriptures and prayer suggestions to help you get started, along with some pointers to resources to help you learn more about prayer and communion with God. This pamphlet is useful for individual study, but more so to a prayer group as a starting point to grow in scriptural prayer. Prayer is a key interface with God. "Many Christians will not pray for a fish. They think the matter is too small for prayer. They think prayer is for conquering attacks from spirits of cancer, tuberculosis, and death. They use prayer at the big moments, but not the small. Christians turn to God during major life trials. And, they should. However, they should also turn to God for things considered minor or inconsequential. Nothing is too big or too small for God." Do you want to pray and make a difference? If you want to see greater results from your prayers, this book is for you. Not every prayer is equal. Why do some prayers have bigger impact than others? Here are 15 secrets that empower prayers of all types, from new understandings to salvation of loved ones. Veteran prayer warriors learn prayer magnification techniques from scripture and from the Holy Spirit. They learn, too, from trial and error. The "secrets" in this book are proven. Pray, or be defeated. The Making of a Prayer Warrior was written in response to the many people who not only asked me for handouts at the end of a presentation at prayer conferences, but also send me prayer requests from time to time. The book aims to address the rudiments of prayer, using the Bible as the main reference. I tried to cover in simple basic terms enough information to take the baby' Christian from a life of no prayer to being a mighty prayer warrior. I have sought to address topics such as: What is prayer, Biblical examples of answered prayers, personal preparation for prayer, becoming a prayer warrior, the prayer group, types of prayers, and how to get your prayers answered. I have written from my own experience as a praying person and can say with much confidence that God is waiting on us to call unto Him. He still stands on His word in 2 Chronicles 7:14 "If my people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." There is a thin line between the natural and the spiritual realm. Ms. V., a humble servant of the Lord, has been placed on assignment at Center of Hope Christian Academy. By day, she serves as a trusted counselor for students, giving them a safe haven to pour out their innermost feelings while providing professional and honest truth wrapped in a firm kindness and love that inevitably draws them closer to Jesus. Not to be outdone, the faculty also bends her ear from time to time. By night, Ms. V. enters the spiritual realm and takes her place on the battlefield as one of God's faithful prayer warriors. She wields her whispering sword, slicing through the enemy's plans to bind the precious hearts under her charge. Her assignment's burden on her physical body is taxing, but can she withstand the strain and remain victorious? Saving souls is her true mission, but at what cost? Readers are in for a journey of spiritual intrigue and biblical insight as they experience the ramifications of each character's life-altering decision. It is the desire of God to develop intimacy with us through prayer. He wants to reveal His heart, through the Holy Spirit, so we can prophetically pray and intercede what is on His heart and give birth to it. It is time for prayer warriors to pray with fervency and for intercessors to persistently stand in the gap and cry out for souls, the Body of Christ and nations. While all Christians are to be prayer warriors, there are some people who feel they have a special and unique ability to pray, having been called by God to pray as their special ministry. To become a warrior in prayer is to engage in spiritual battle and fight the good fight of faith, wearing the full armor of God and pray[ing] in the Spirit on all occasions, with all kinds of prayers and requests (Ephesians 6:10-18). The Bible never specifies certain people who are to pray more often, more diligently, or more effectively than other Christians, but there are diligent prayers who are known for their emphasis on prayer. Paul commands that requests, prayers, intercession, and thanksgiving be made for everyone (1 Timothy 2:1), and he says nothing that would indicate some people are exempt from doing so. All believers in Christ have the Holy Spirit who helps us communicate our prayer requests (Romans 8:26-27). All believers should be praying in the name of Jesus, which means that Jesus Christ is our Lord and Savior. We trust in Him for everything. This includes His interceding with the Father for us in all things. We should all live and pray in accordance to God's Will. Praying in Jesus name does not mean merely adding in Jesus name to a prayer. Rather, it means praying in submission toward His Will. What's the Secret of Prayer? Prayer. We all know it should be a bigger part of our life. But few feel they have mastered prayer (if that is possible) and all of us feel we could

For anyone eager to answer the call of God on his or her life to pray while responding to the desire of his or her heart to see people and situations change, Prayer Warrior is a must-read. We are in a state of spiritual warfare; the question is do you know who the enemy is, and do you know how to fight back? It is time for God's people to realize that we are at war! We need to declare a state of emergency, so we can take the time to evaluate and assess the damage that has already been done by the prince of darkness. Our lack of fighting back has caused us to give up too much ground to the devil. We need to stop being afraid of the devil and stand up, fight back, and protect ourselves. We also need to learn how to fight the devil and his powers and spirits of darkness with spiritual weapons because our earthly weapons are not effective against these adversaries. The purpose of this workbook is to teach you how to utilize the power of prayer to create a battle plan to defend ourselves, our families, our churches, our communities, and our way of life from the unending and continuous attacks from the powers of darkness that are obliterating the fiber of our moral society and values. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your request be made known unto God. Philippians 4:6 Pastor Charles A. Hall, preaches and teaches the inspired Word of God at the St John Baptist Church in Alexandria Virginia, where prayer warriors are taught how to unleash the power of God through prayer to protect the territory that God has given them. This document is intended to help you better understand the dynamics of the battle and how we are to engage the enemy by calling on and using the power of God to secure victory in our lives.
