He was from a large family, which was continually affected with illness. At the age of twenty-one, he became a Methodist minister; however, he chose to enter the business world instead of accepting a church ministry. Lake was a very industrious businessman and started two newspapers before beginning a very successful career in real estate. Early in his career, Lake's wife, whom he deeply loved, fell ill with a life threatening illness. Having a lifetime of suffering and bereavement behind him, he refused to accept this. He took the radical step of taking 'his brother who had been an invalid for 22 years to Chicago see John Alexander Dowie . In a matter of just moments after healing ministers laid their hands on him, he was healed -- he got up and walked out! Next, the Lakes took their 34-year-old sister who was dying from breast cancer. She had been operated on five times and had to be carried on a stretcher. She too was healed! -- The most complete compilation of material on the life and ministry of John G. Lake -- A detailed biography together with original sermons and testimonies makes this book historically intriguing, yet applicable to modern times "Because the messages in this book have make them available. "A fascinating and frightening book" (Los Angeles Times)—the bestselling true story about a house possessed by evil spirits, haunted by psychic phenomena almost too terrible to describe. In December 1975, the Lutz family moved into their new home on suburban Long Island. George and Kathleen Lutz knew that, one year earlier, Ronald DeFeo had murdered his parents, brothers, and sisters in the house, but the property—complete with boathouse and swimming pool—and the price had been too good to pass up. Twenty-eight days later, the entire Lutz family fled in terror. This is the spellbinding, shocking true story that gripped the nation about an American dream that turned into a nightmare beyond imagining—"this book will scare the hell out of you" (Kansas City Star). The sermons in this volume were preached by Dr. John G. Lake during the height of his ministry. Many believe he had the greatest healing ministry of his time, first as a missionary to South Africa, and later in Spokane, Washington, where 100,000 healings were recorded in five years. Compiled and edited by Gordon Lindsay. Speaking in other tongues has been one of the most misunderstood gifts in Christianity. The carnal and natural minded have resisted and fought against this "sign" ever since it was introduced to the church on the Day of Pentecost. In this message, Brother Curry, gives straightforward teaching on why God Himself chose "tongues" to be the primary sign of the presence of the Spirit. Operating in this gift will "turbo-charge" your prayer life as well as revolutionize your life as a child of God. Find out why this tool is so effective. "John G. Lake's five year tenure as a missionary in South Africa has long been shrouded in mystery and conjecture, with only a few testimonies coming from Lake's sermons as he ministered healing to hundreds of thousands later in life. In this exciting volume, you will find details concerning the death of Lake's first wife after only a few months in South Africa, the beginnings of the unprecedented revival that began within days of the arrival of Lake and fellow missionaries, the astounding miracles and healings that were the hallmark of the fledgling Pentecostal Movement, and a complete transcription of Lake's own African diary."--Provided by the publisher Throughout history, inspiring leaders have stepped out in faith, stirring many to renewed strength and purpose. With sparkling writing and fascinating detail, Dean Merrill captures the bold, often surprising stories of notable Pentecostal, charismatic, and Spirit-empowered leaders. As Dean trains his journalist's eye on the lives of Smith Wigglesworth, David du Plessis, William J. Seymour, Aimee Semple McPherson, and many more, these engaging narratives challenge readers to follow in the footsteps of these extraordinary individuals and obey the Holy Spirit. Contains the entirety of the evangelists's life work.
