1963 Chapter 75 May 17 2022 The assassination of President Kennedy changed the history of the United States and the world. Vietnam and Watergate followed and the rise of unbridled power. Chapter 75 of Robert P. Fitton's time travel novel 1963 is like a mini-book in itself. Like the novel itself, any assertion about the Kennedy Assassination is sourced. The entire sequence in Dealey Plaza is slowed down which aids the reader in understanding the true nature of the shots fired at the president. For those who lived through the dark days in Dallas the truth may be unsettling, and the graphic forensic details are horrific. What happens in Chapter 75 is not the story spun by the United States government.

The Echo from Dealey Plaza Apr 28 2023 A gripping and unforgettable true story of bravery and patriotism in the face of bitter hatred. Abraham Bolden was a young African American Secret Service agent in Chicago when he was asked by John F. Kennedy himself to join the White House Secret Service detail. For Bolden, it was a dream come true—and an encouraging sign of the charismatic president's vision for a new America. But the dream quickly turned sour. Bolden found himself regularly subjected to open hostility and blatant racism, and he was appalled by the White House team's irresponsible approach to security. In the wake of JFK's assassination, Bolden sought to expose the agency's negligence, only to find himself the victim of a sinister conspiracy. The Echo from Dealey Plaza is the story of the terrible price paid by one man for his commitment to truth and justice.

The Extra Rifle in Dealey Plaza and Too Many Bullets Apr 16 2022 Nearly 3/4 of the American people believe the death of the 35nd President of the United States was the result of a conspiracy. And it's provable. This second book in the new JFK Assassination Unraveled series does just that. Unlike other books that drown

Based on careful research and powerful "insider information," this series takes a fresh look at the death of President John F. Kennedy more than half a century after the fact.

The Great Zapruder Film Hoax Nov 30 2020 This is the first book to expose a crucial aspect of the cover-up of the JFK assassination conspiracy: the doctoring of the Zapruder film, allegedly a 27-second home movie shot by Abraham Zapruder in Dealey Plaza. The evidence for alteration of the Zapruder movie takes many forms, including inconsistencies with eyewitness testimony, discrepancies with other films and photographs, impossible movements within the time-frame of the movie, contradictions between the movie and the physical layout of Dealey Plaza, and the multiple versions of the movie itself. This book brings together all the leading authorities within the assassination research community, including David Healy, authority on technical processes of film production; Jack White, who for forty years has made a special study of the JFK assassination movies and photographs; John Costella, Ph.D., a physicist and engineer with a background in optics, the properties of light, and moving objects; and David W. Mantick, Ph.D., the foremost expert on the medical evidence in the JFK assassination.

Case Closed Jan 21 2020 Pulitzer Prize Finalist: " By far the most lucid and compelling account . . . of what probably did happen in Dallas—and what almost certainly did not. " —The New York Times Book Review The Kennedy assassination has reverberated for five decades, with tales of secret plots, multiple killers, and government cabals often overshadowing the event itself. As Gerald Posner writes, " Fifty years after the assassination, the biggest casualty has been the truth. " In this first-ever digital edition of his classic work, updated with a special comment for the fiftieth anniversary, Posner lays to rest all of the convoluted conspiracy theories—concerning the mafia, a second shooter, and the CIA—that have obscured over the decades what really happened in Dealey Plaza on November 22, 1963. Drawing from official sources and dozens of interviews, and filled with powerful historical detail, Case Closed is a vivid and straightforward account that stands as one of the most authoritative books on the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

The Guns of Dealey Plaza -- Weapons and the Kennedy Assassination Jan 25

2023 This study investigates the numerous sightings and sounds of weapons in and around Dealey Plaza on November 22, 1963 as well as bullets and bullet fragments found in Dealey Plaza and experiments that employed 21st century technology to investigate details of the JFK assassination that were unavailable to the Warren Commission and the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) investigations. High definition television, high-speed cameras, and 3D laser scans that create accurate virtual worlds are some of the latest technical instruments used to dissect the nature of the shots fired in Dealey Plaza.

The JFK Assassination Sep 21 2022 In his new book, "The Kennedy Assassination, from the Oval Office to Dealey Plaza," Radio Show Host Brent Holland shares the last interview with Theodore "Ted" Sorenson, President John F. Kennedy's trusted advisor, speechwriter, and friend, shortly before Sorenson died in 2010. Sorenson's interview is insightful, with a no-holds-barred sense of urgency to share his insider knowledge in what turned out to be his last interview. Host and author Holland shares not only his intuitive interviews but gives the reader a mixture of prose and astute commentary with every chapter. The host of Canada's successful "Night Fright" radio show, Holland goes head-to-head with major players in the Kennedy assassination research circles, Mark Lane, Lee Oswald's only legal representative, James DiEugenio and Lamar Waldron, and crime scene experts Sherry Fiester and G. Paul Chambers. The book also includes high impact, first-person witness accounts such as Dr. Robert McClelland, the Parkland Hospital doctor who tried to save JFK's life, Dealey Plaza witnesses James Tague and Beverly Oliver Massegee, and Abraham Bolden, the first African-American Secret Service Agent hand-picked by JFK.

"The President Has Been Shot!": The Assassination of John F. Kennedy Jun 25 2020 A breathtaking and dramatic account of the JFK assassination by the NEW YORK TIMES bestselling author of CHASING LINCOLN'S KILLER! In his new young-adult book on the Kennedy assassination, James Swanson will transport readers back to one of the most shocking, sad, and terrifying events in American history. As he did in his bestselling Scholastic YA book, CHASING LINCOLN'S KILLER, Swanson will deploy his signature "you are there" style -- a riveting, ticking-clock pace, with an unprecedented eye for dramatic details and impeccable historical accuracy -- to tell the story of the JFK assassination as it has never been told before. The book will be illustrated with archival photos, and will have diagrams, source notes, bibliography, places to visit, and an index.

A Diversion in Dealey Plaza Nov 23 2022 The book, "A Diversion in Dealey Plaza: The JFK Assassination", presents startling new discoveries concerning the John F. Kennedy assassination in Dealey Plaza drawn mainly from witness testimonies, the Abraham Zapruder film and photographs taken during the event.

The first two chapters give an overview of the assassination as well as the Warren Commission conclusions as to the number, placement and timing of each shot. The rest of the book is devoted to the actual audible and visual events as reported by those who lined up along Elm, Houston and Main Streets and by those riding in the motorcade within a few car lengths of the President. Many of their testimonies have been misunderstood or ignored over the last 50-plus years, thus presenting a confused and muddled version of the assassination. Yet as the testimonies are brought into focus, these priceless gems offer insights and new discoveries into questions that have been gnawing at the minds of countless individuals worldwide, questions like: 1. Was there a shot from the Knoll? 2. Was there smoke on the Knoll? 3. How many shots were actually fired? 4. Is the "Magic Bullet" theory correct? 5. When precisely was the first shot fired? 6. The missing third shot, when was it fired and where did it hit? As testimonies are pieced together the reader will uncover shocking evidence left hidden for over 50-plus years: * Not only testimonial evidence but a new awareness of photographic proof that a diversionary device was detonated during the shooting to confuse the Secret Service contingent protecting the President, * That all three precision shots from the sixth floor sniper's nest hit President Kennedy, * That Governor Connally did turn when he heard the first shot, but not when the Warren Commission thought he did, offering proof of a second gunman. With these discoveries there can be no doubt that the assassination was carried out, not by "a lone gunman," but by a more sophisticated group of assassins. "A Diversion in Dealey Plaza: The JFK Assassination", researched and written over the last six years, is my introduction into the writing arena. It evolved from an inquisitive notion to find a missing third shot to a seemingly overwhelming book-length proof of a conspiracy in Dealey Plaza. Find out what actually happened through the eyes and ears of those that were present that day.

Murder in Dealey Plaza : what We Know Now that We Didn't Know Then about the Death of JFK Aug 20 2022

Dealey Plaza Oct 22 2022 Dealey Plaza is famous for many things, both locally and nationally. Considered the front door of Dallas, the park rests on a bluff near the Trinity River, where Dallas founder, John Neely Bryan, identified a natural low-water crossing in 1841. This ford was the site of Bryans cabin and was also the site of the first ferry and bridge over the Trinity River. Home to several Dallas County buildings and other historic structures, Dealey is not just the birthplace of Dallas; it is also the site of Dallas first large-scale city planning solution, a traffic diverting triple underpass, and a beautiful downtown park built in the 1930s. The park was launched into national history when Pres. John F. Kennedy was assassinated here on November 22, 1963. Today, the site is visited by over two million annually. To preserve Dealey Plaza and its surrounding buildings, the federal government designated it a National Historic Landmark District in 1993.

End of Days Jun 06 2021 In End of Days, James L. Swanson, the New York Times bestselling author of Manhunt: The 12-Day Chase for Lincoln's Killer, brings to life the minute-by-minute details of the JFK assassination—from the Kennedys' arrival in Texas through the shooting in Dealey Plaza and the shocking aftermath that continues to reverberate in our national consciousness fifty years later. The assassination of John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963, has been the subject of enduring debate, speculation, and numerous conspiracy theories, but Swanson's absorbing and complete account follows the event hour-by-hour, from the moment Lee Harvey Oswald conceived of the crime three days before its execution, to his own murder two days later at a Dallas Police precinct at the hands of Jack Ruby, a two-bit nightclub owner. Based on sweeping research never before collected so powerfully in a single volume, and illustrated with photographs, End of Days distills Kennedy's assassination into a pulse-pounding thriller that is sure to become the definitive popular account of this historic crime for years to come.

Kill Zone Dec 24 2022 In 1997, former U.S. Marine sniper Craig Roberts, a seasoned veteran of the Vietnam war, stood for the first time at the 6th floor "sniper's nest" window of the Texas School Book Depository. As he looked down into what the U.S. Government maintains was the kill zone used by Lee Harvey Oswald, he immediately knew that the Warren Commission's verdict--that Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone from that position, fired three shots in 5.6 seconds from a bolt-action rifle, with the fatal head shot being the last fired--was a lie. Why? Because Roberts, a combat experienced marksman, knew that he could not have duplicated Oswald's supposed feat--even if armed with the much more modern sniper rifle he used with devastating accuracy in Vietnam. At that moment, Roberts, a 20 year veteran police officer, investigator, and recognized authority on sniping, began an investigation that would last six years, take him into the shadow world of clandestine intelligence operations--and beyond--to discover the existence of a sinister organization that resides far above the CIA, KGB, the Mafia, and even government itself. An entity so powerful that, the elimination of a country's leader was little more than business as usual.

In the Eye of History Feb 02 2021 An oral history of the JFK autopsy Anyone interested in the greatest mystery of the 20th century will benefit from the historic perspective of the attendees of President Kennedy's autopsy. For the first time in their own words these witnesses to history give firsthand accounts of what took place in the autopsy morgue at Bethesda, Maryland, on the night on November 22, 1963. Author William Matson Law set out on a personal quest to reach an understanding of the circumstances underpinning the assassination of John F. Kennedy. His investigation led him to the autopsy on the president's body at the National Naval Medical Center. In the Eye of History comprises conversations with eight individuals who agreed to talk: Dennis David, Paul O'Connor, James Jenkins, Jerrol Custer, Harold Rydberg, Sandra Spencer, and ex-FBI Special Agents James Sibert and Frances O'Neill. These eyewitnesses relate their stories comprehensively, and Law allows them to tell it as they remember it without attempting to fit any pro- or anticonspiracy agenda. The book also features a DVD featuring these firsthand interviews.

Dealey Plaza Jul 27 2020 Dealey Plaza is a story about people and events surrounding John Fitzgerald Kennedy's life, his Presidency, his assassination, and the conspiracy theories about his death swirling like vortexes spinning round-and-round-and-round. The book describes the end of Camelot and what it meant to society. This book will blow your mind. It delves into the inner psyche of Lee Harvey Oswald and his tumultuous relationship with his wife Marina. It touches on the lives of those at Dealey Plaza on November 22, 1963, the motorcade watchers, the motorcade participants, the Secret Service men, the newspaper reporters, the police. The life of Lee Harvey Oswald is analyzed and portrayed as he moves from place to place. The book is as much about understanding Lee Harvey Oswald as it is about JFK and his life. The role of Jim Garrison the New Orleans District Attorney who charged the CIA, Clay Shaw, David Ferrie, Lee Harvey Oswald, and others with conspiring to kill JFK is reviewed in great detail. The CIA's and JFK's plans to kill Fidel Castro are noted along with how the Mafia, Jimmy Hoffa, Fidel Castro and others wanted JFK dead. The book is dedicated to Emory Roberts, who was my neighbor in Wheaton, Maryland and was in charge of the Secret Service Detail that fateful day at Dealey Plaza and was in the back-up car when JFK was shot. Marina Oswald is seen in all her radiant glory and what she went through after her husband was killed. What the CIA knew and did is an integral part of the story. JFK's hi-jinks with innumerable women spanning more than twenty-five years is revealed. Jack Ruby, owner of the Carousel Night Club, killer of Lee Harvey Oswald, his activities and actions are portrayed. David Ferrie was in the Civil Air Patrol with Lee Harvey Oswald in the mid-50's in Louisiana and his role in crazy goings on is discussed like his involvement in a plot to make a poison to kill Fidel Castro. There are people knowledgeable about conspiracies surrounding JFK's assassination who fear to come forward because of what might happen to them. Many who had knowledge about conspiracies involving JFK died before they talked about it - some of them murdered. I can understand how people witnessing an earth shattering event can keep it secret for years-and-years. In the early evening on Friday, January 15, 1963, an acquaintance was an eyewitness to a sensational murder. A wealthy real estate developer and landlord, after visiting his children, was battered by four young men with baseball bats and stabbed seventeen times outside his four-car garage thirty-five yards from his home and stuffed into the back seat of his pinkish-purple customized Cadillac Eldorado Biarritz. A short time later, he saw the developer, a huge man, in his death throes in the back seat of his car looming up like a huge apparition, eerie lighting cascading down from nearby pole lights, the ground covered with six inches of snow, the parking lot an icy sheet, the temperature a frigid eighteen degrees. Two of his killers were his nephews, one of them his ex-wife's lover. Years later they were brought to justice. He did not reveal anything for twenty-nine years except to his wife, and did not tell her for three years. What is huge about this story involves a man who worked for my father in New Orleans who was best friends with Jim Garrison, the District Attorney of New Orleans from 1962-1973. My father knew Jim Garrison from dealings he had with him in law suits and civic functions but did not know him intimately. This book is for anyone who wants to learn about, review or reassess the Kennedy years, his death, and all that transpired surrounding his death since November 22, 1963, and wants to get a new perspective on some of the things that happened.

Dealey Plaza Jun 18 2022 When a group of conspiracy buffs go to Dealey Plaza in Dallas to film their own reenactment of the Kennedy Assassination, four of them are brutally murdered. It's the first link in a chain of violent death that spans four decades and ends with a shooting spree on a college campus. Assassination and Commemoration Feb 26 2023 The shots that killed President John F. Kennedy in November 1963 were fired from the sixth floor of a nondescript warehouse at the edge of Dealey Plaza in downtown Dallas. That floor in the Texas School Book Depository became a museum exhibit in 1989 and was designated part of a National Historic Landmark District in 1993. This book recounts the slow and painful process by which a city and a nation came to terms with its collective memory of the assassination and its aftermath. Stephen Fagin begins Assassination and Commemoration by retracing the events that culminated in Lee Harvey Oswald ' s shots at the presidential motorcade. He vividly describes the volatile political climate of midcentury Dallas as well as the shame that haunted the city for decades after the assassination. The book highlights the decades-long work of people determined to create a museum that commemorates a president and recalls the drama and heartbreak of November 22, 1963. Fagin narrates the painstaking day-to-day work of cultivating the support of influential citizens and convincing boards and committees of the importance of preservation and interpretation. Today, The Sixth Floor Museum helps visitors to interpret the depository and Dealey Plaza as sacred ground and a monument to an unforgettable American tragedy. One of the most popular historic sites in Texas, it is a place of quiet reflection, of edification for older Americans who remember the Kennedy years, and of education for the large and growing number of younger visitors unfamiliar with the events the museum commemorates. Like the museum itself, Fagin ' s book both carefully studies a community ' s confrontation with tragedy and explores the ways we preserve the past.

Kennedy's death. Through hundreds of interviews, abundant travel and firsthand observation, and with unique access to the proceedings of the Warren Commission, Manchester conducted an exhaustive historical investigation, accumulating forty-five volumes of documents, exhibits, and transcribed tapes. The Last Shot in Dealey Plaza Apr 04 2021 Ballistics and Facts For five years Craig Cabell was the Small Arms desk officer for the Ministry of Defence. On a daily basis he worked with British industry and the military to form an understanding of small arms and their uses in the most strategic ways, mainly through industry partnering and collaboration. During those five years Cabell created the Sniper Pyramid and Ballistic ToolKit, which brought together ballistic experts, engineers and other specialists, for operational requirements. When Cabell first watched the Zapruder movie of the assassination of President Kennedy, he was instantly aware that the two shots that hit the president came from in front of the motorcade, not behind, making Lee Harvey Oswald innocent of taking the president's life. Couple that with the facts of the day and the first medical statements from Parkland Hospital, Cabell has pieced together facts and ballistic analysis that lead to a convincing account of a triangular-fire conspiracy and the names of two of the five shooters involved in the assassination.

Adding to this the work of Operation 40, Cabell has constructed a plausible explanation for the Kennedy assassination, proving that Lee Harvey Oswald didn't even shoot a gun that fateful day.

The Road to Dallas Oct 10 2021 The assassination of President John F. Kennedy was an appalling and grisly conspiracy. In this unvarnished story, Kaiser shows that the events of November 22, 1963, cannot be understood without fully grasping the two larger stories of which they were a part: the U.S. government's campaign against organized crime, which began in the late 1950s and accelerated dramatically under Robert Kennedy; and the furtive quest of two administrations to eliminate Fidel Castro. This book brings to light the complete, frequently shocking, story of the JFK assassination and its aftermath.

Last Word Jul 07 2021 Mark Lane tried the only U.S. court case in which the jurors concluded that the CIA plotted the murder of President Kennedy, but there was always a missing piece: How did the CIA control cops and secret service agents on the ground in Dealey Plaza? How did federal authorities prevent the House Select Committee on Assassinations from discovering the truth about the complicity of the CIA? Now, New York Times best-selling author Mark Lane tells all in this explosive new book—with exclusive new interviews, sworn testimony, and meticulous new research (including interviews with Oliver Stone, Dallas Police deputy sheriffs, Robert K. Tanenbaum, and Abraham Bolden) Lane finds out first hand exactly what went on the day JFK was assassinated. Lane includes sworn statements given to the Warren Commission by a police officer who confronted a man who he thought was the assassin. The officer testified that he drew his gun and pointed it at the suspect who showed Secret Service ID. Yet, the Secret Service later reported that there were no Secret Service agents on foot in Dealey Plaza. The Last Word proves that the CIA, operating through a secret small group, prepared all credentials for Secret Service agents in Dallas for the two days that Kennedy was going to be there—conclusive evidence of the CIA ' s involvement in the assassination.

JFK Dec 20 2019 "Jean Hill, the "lady in red" in Zapruder's Kennedy assassination film, saw a gunman on the famous grassy knoll on November 22, 1963. That gunman was NOT Lee Harvey Oswald.
