Austen Chamberlain and the Commitment to Europe Sep 12 2021
This is a study of Austen Chamberlain's term of office as Stanley Baldwin's Foreign Secretary from 1924-29. It is argued that Chamberlain's priority was a two-stage policy in Western Europe, which aimed at pacifying both France and Germany, as well as encouraging the League of Nations.

How Is Paper Made? Jan 29 2023 The ancient Chinese began making paper about 2,000 years ago. The basic process they created has been used throughout history. However, paper companies today use machines and can make a lot of paper at once instead of just one sheet at a time. Readers track papermaking from cutting down trees and making pulp with the wood to the final product we can use for writing. Full-color photographs show the papermaking process step by step, and an illustrated diagram simplifies it further for readers to review after reading the main content.

Its quite amazing that anything exists at all, and in this way, in such exquisite strange beauty. Using archaic techniques and imagery, the reader is given tools to take a direct look at God, Self, and other.
