Jesus had little patience with institutional religion that cared for its own needs while neglecting the plight of ordinary people. In one of his most famous parables, he sets up as a model of Christian behavior a man who, unlike some religious folks, actually gets down off his donkey and helps a person in dire need. With energy and enthusiasm, Reggie McNeal calls believers to dismount, get down and dirty, and live a life that makes a difference. He shows readers how to recalibrate their spiritual efforts to move from church-centric service to greater community engagement in order to do their essential part in creating a world worth living in. McNeal also shows readers that helping others actually helps the one doing the service just as much as the one being served. In fact, serving is the very best way to learn about yourself and grow spiritually. Anyone who longs to have the impact on the world that Jesus did will love this provocative and inspirational message. Oh! What power And matchless Love Christ has Bestowed on His child My baby sister Kimberly. "Somebody Prayed for Me" is a unique, close and personal testimony of Kim's life. As you begin to read, you find yourself sitting up with Kim in the midnight hour; sitting at her bed side at the hospital as the doctors talk to her; and you even find yourself walking down the corridor as Kim is being wheeled into surgery. At times, you will laugh and at times you will cry. You will pray like you have never prayed before. As you read, you see and feel the wonder of Jesus throughout the pages. Kim clings to the only true and Faithful One's hand and that is Jesus. Life can hit us with some unexpected blows. Sickness is one of those unexpected blows that may hit you, a family member, or a close friend. "Somebody Prayed for Me" helps you take your petitions to Him who sits on high, whose ear is always intoned to His children's cries. Psalm 40:1 says, "I waited patiently for the Lord; and He inclined unto me, and heard my cry." He did it for Kim; He will do it for you. May God richly bless you as read "Somebody Prayed for Me." Beverly Palmer-Hill is a second- grade teacher from Columbus, Ohio. She is a published writer of poetry, a mother of two David V. Hill,

III and Leslie Maxine Hill and the grandmother of Christopher and Alana Green. Kimberly Palmer-Washington is an International Singing Evangelist and the Publishing Director of ACOF News Ministry. She lives in Englewood, New Jersey. She is a mother of one adult daughter LoisJessica Carol Chappell Washington. Make relationships work for you and become a fulfilled and better person. Kristen Wakefield grew up the privileged, beloved daughter and sister of a wealthy family...yet she felt eclipsed by the achievements of her older brother, Adam, a renowned neurosurgeon. In New Orleans, Kristen believes she now has the opportunity to prove herself and forget a rather disastrous past relationship. But life is much harder than she expected in the Big Easy. Then she meets a man from her past, Rafe Crawford...a man battling his own demons and keeping his own secrets. The beautiful, but down-to-earth Angelique Fleming has always had to fight to get what she wanted in a world dominated by men and she has the chip on her shoulder to prove it. Which is why she takes great pleasure working at a local strip club, hoping to expose a few naughty little secrets of the community's upstanding men. But before she gets all the dirt, she's going to find out a few things about life, men, and forgiveness she thought she already knew. Claudette Thibodeaux Laurent comes from old New Orleans money and had always adhered to the family code: honor above all else. But she shocks polite society when she marries a man much younger than herself, a man everyone suspects is only after her money. Claudette has done her duty to her family and now she wants a little happiness for herself. And yet doubts eventually begin to creep in and she isn't sure which Maurice loves more: her or her money, as his desire for the finer things in life become more and more lavish. Just exactly how much is her happiness is going to cost her? Told with Francis Ray's trademark emotion and passion, Somebody's Knocking at My Door is a powerful story of betrayal and forgiveness, love and healing. Tells the story of Denver Moore and how he grew up in poverty as the son of a sharecropper and lived for a long time in the city as a homeless man before meeting a kind couple that helped him and inspired him to help others in his situation. "Number three [Somebody's Baby] in Alward's Darling, Vermont, series is a fantastic friends-to-lovers tale featuring a true-to-life wary-of-commitment couple." - RT Bookreviews

Veterinarian Rory Gallagher chose a different path from his brothers, both of whom became first responders in the lovely little town of Darling, Vermont. Rory's always had an affinity for animals—and the ladies. Known for his impressive track record in breaking hearts, Rory never meant to hurt anyone; he's just never been in a hurry to settle down. It's not as if he needs to pay a visit to the town's famed Kissing Bridge to magically find love. He'll know The One when he sees her. . .right? Oaklee Ferguson is the kid sister of Rory's best friend—and, even now that she's all grown up, remains immune to the pet-doctor's charms. When she shows up at Rory's clinic late one night—devastated after hitting a stray dog with her car—Rory's so-called “bedroom eyes” are the last thing on her mind. Still, his care and kindness toward the dog, and his concern for her feelings, catches Oaklee by surprise. . .and soon the two (and rescued dog makes three!) begin to share a deep connection that neither could have ever imagined. Could it be that love has been waiting for them by the bridge all along? Important American periodical dating back to 1850. In this poignant and heart wrenching true story, Regina Louise recounts her childhood search for connection in the face of abuse, neglect, and rejection. What happens to a child when her own parents reject her and sit idly by as others abuse her? In this poignant, heart wrenching debut work, Regina Louise recounts her childhood search for someone to feel connected to. A mother she has never known--but long fantasized about-- deposited her and her half sister at the same group home that she herself fled years before. When another resident beats Regina so badly that she can barely move, she knows that she must leave this terrible place--the only home she knows. Thus begins Regina's fight to survive, utterly alone at the age of 10. A stint living with her mother and her abusive boyfriend is followed by a stay with her father's lily white wife and daughters, who ignore her before turning to abuse and ultimately kicking her out of the house. Regina then tries everything in her search for someone to care for her and to care about, from taking herself to jail to escaping countless foster homes to be near her beloved counselor. Written in her distinctive and unique voice, Regina's story offers an in-depth look at the life of a child who no one wanted. From her initial flight to her eventual discovery of love, your heart will go out to Regina's younger self, and you'll cheer her on as she struggles to be Somebody's Someone. Monty Rosenberg was a sublimely and ruthlessly selfish man, who gave joy to others by accident, pursuing all the while his own luxurious aims. From the day of his birth until this lamentable evening in September he had never wished to benefit anybody but himself. He lived to and for himself, and this beautiful home had been made for his own delight; and yet the inscrutable ways of life had performed a seeming miracle, and Monty was tonight a mere voiceless child obeying the decrees of circumstance. He was preparing to entertain his guests in a mood of solemn and magistral calm. He thought nothing at all of their pleasure or their envy. He was as much above snobbery as he was below compassion. But he had created an atmosphere of gorgeous appropriateness to the marvels of the human heart, and the gloomy night furnished a contrast as violent as the most emotional person in the world could have desired. He had prepared a stir of color which must affect all those who were to be present upon this occasion. Somebody's Listening is the awe-inspiring true story of a seeker's mystical journey of awakening and fulfillment. This enlightening journey traces a long arc from a revealing California childhood in the fifties through the sixties and on to adulthood, when a decades-long spiritual journey begins under the tutelage of a Chinese Taoist-Buddhist priest in the summer of 1980. A truly auspicious and mystical event happens that summer, the first of many illuminating experiences during the long apprenticeship. Written with grace and expansion, this book brings the reader along a journey of inconceivable wonder, filled with spiritual insights, practical guidelines, and revelatory realizations that are both current and ancient. Somebody's Listening is spiritual nourishment, intended to inspire the cultivation of spiritual values in daily life through Taoist and Buddhist principles and practice and to bring awareness of something greater than ourselves in the hopes all might find peace. We live in a high tech world. With digital televisions, computers, cell phones, IPODS, and video games out there, one can become overwhelmed. There's technology out there to do almost everything for us. When was the last time you sat down with pen and paper and did a simple math problem? You know, add, subtract, multiply, or divide. Calculators and computers can do this for us. Most of us have to do business with banks. Many of you have felt that you've been cheated or just plain taken advantage of by banks. There are high interest rates, overdraft fees, other fees and other hidden cost. You might be surprised to find out that banks will take money from your account without any accountability. You had better brush up on your math skills. I served in the United States Air Force and lived in several states and in Great Britain. Over the past 38 years, I've had bank accounts in the United States and abroad. My story is about my encounters with only four of these banks. One good and three that was not so pleasant. Money was taken from my accounts without accountability. I'll show you how I was able to keep track of their actions and finally what I did about it. Contains text of sermons delivered by M.J. Savage and others in New York City. Join me as I share extraordinary encounters with strangers and loved ones. Hope with me for the one who lost her childhood before she understood womanhood. Sit with me while I wonder what to say to an aging parent, who no longer views the world through the lens we once shared. Reach out beyond your comfort level to listen to a young person who has lost her parents but found herself. Smile with me as you share my journey with my beloved. These are just a few of the stories you will find in this book. I hope that these stories will fill you with a sense of wonder and open you to the possibilities of a world of relationships and chance encounters that will enrich your life. Why would Almighty God need somebody? What would the Lord require of you? What is it that God cannot do for Himself? What is it that God cannot achieve by Himself? God is looking for somebody who will stand between Him and man. God is looking for someone to answer the questions of the little ones! God is looking for someone to deliver the children who are far from safety! The Bible says God sought for a man...! Through this heart-warming book, your desire to be a willing vessel in God's hand will be kindled! You will no longer be satisfied with being a simple member. You will become a helper! You will say like the famous song writer, "Lord, I know you need somebody! You can depend on me!". Arriving in Washington, D.C., to start his own company, with the help of his friends Jada and Wellington, twenty-two-year-old Darius Jones hires a woman from his past, Fancy Taylor, to oversee his West Coast offices. If I Can Help Somebody is spiritual fuel for the traveler on this Christian journey. These God-inspired messages are reminders that every answer to any situation can be found in the Word of God and His promise is still true--His Word shall not return void. To return, the Word must first go out. To go out, there must be a messenger. This messenger, Sheila Dene' Lawrence, shares from personal experiences, how to: Enjoy a closer relationship with God Seek in earnest God's purpose Satisfy the spiritual urging to do more for the Kingdom If these messages help only one, then Lawrence has successfully began her own walk in her predestined, foreordained purpose. "IF I can help somebody...then my purpose shall be fulfilled." Foreword written by Pastor Ed Carroll, the anointed Shepherd of Rising Star Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama where "growth is not an option for Kingdom-building." A man must save the life of a little girl who may be his own flesh and blood in this pulse-pounding novel of psychological suspense from the USA Today bestselling author of Kill All Your Darlings. When Michael Frazier's ex-wife, Erica, unexpectedly shows up on his doorstep, she drops a bombshell that threatens to rip his family apart: Her ten-year-old daughter is missing—and Michael is the father. Unsure whether this is the truth but unwilling to leave the girl's fate to chance, Michael has no choice but to follow the elusive trail of the child he has always wanted but never knew he had. Over the course of one night, lies that span a decade come bubbling to the surface, putting Michael, his wife, and his whole family in jeopardy. And as the window for a little girl's safe return closes, Michael will have to decide who can be trusted and who is hiding the truth.... This business magazine covers domestic and international business topics. Special issues include Annual Report on American Industry, Forbes 500, Stock Bargains, and Special Report on Multinationals. A critically acclaimed #1 New York Times best-seller with more than one million copies in print! Now a major motion picture. Gritty with pain, betrayal, and brutality, this incredible true story also shines with an unexpected, life-changing love. Meet Denver, raised under plantation-style slavery in Louisiana until he escaped the "Man" in the 1960's by hopping a train. Untrusting, uneducated, and violent, he spends 18 years on the streets of Dallas and Fort Worth. Meet Ron Hall, a self-made millionaire in the world of high-priced deals—an international arts dealer who moves between upscale New York galleries and celebrities. It seems unlikely that these two men would meet under normal circumstances, but when Deborah Hall, Ron's wife, meets Denver, she sees him through God's eyes of compassion. When Deborah is diagnosed with cancer, she charges Ron with the mission of helping Denver. From this request, an extraordinary friendship forms between Denver and Ron, changing them both forever. A tale told in two unique voices, Same Kind of Different as Me weaves two completely different life experiences into one common journey. There is pain and laughter, doubt and tears, and in the end a triumphal story that readers will never forget. Continue this story of friendship in What Difference Do It Make?: Stories of Hope and Healing, available now. Same Kind of Different as Me also is available in Spanish. Everybody can help somebody—even you! "I used to spend a lotta time worryin' that I was different from other people . . . But I found out everybody's different—the same kind of different as me." Little Denver grew up very poor, and he didn't get to go to school. As time passed, Denver decided to hop a train to the big city for a different life. But that life was difficult, and Denver spent many years as a homeless man. But God showed His love through two people who were very different from Denver. Based on Same Kind of Different As Me, the emotional tale of Denver Moore's life story, this unique children's book includes Denver's original art. Parents and children alike will be moved by this powerful story and will never forget the unexpected and life-changing things that can happen when we help somebody. "Nobody can help everybody, but everybody can help somebody." Meets national education standards. Contains text of Community Church sermons and addresses. In Haitian Vodou, spirits impact Black practitioners' everyday lives, tightly connecting the sacred and the secular. As Eziaku Atuama Nwokocha reveals in this richly textured book, that connection is manifest in the dynamic relationship between public religious ceremonies, material aesthetics, bodily adornment, and spirit possession. Nwokocha spent more than a decade observing Vodou ceremonies from Montreal and New York to Miami and Port-au-Prince. She engaged particularly with a Haitian practitioner and former fashion designer, Manbo Maude, who presided over Vodou temples in Mattapan, Massachusetts, and Jacmel, Haiti. With vivid description and nuanced analysis, Nwokocha shows how Manbo Maude's use of dress and her production of ritual garments are key to serving Black gods and illuminate a larger transnational economy of fashion and spiritual exchange. This innovative book centers on fashion and other forms of self-presentation, yet it draws together many strands of thought and practice, showing how religion is a multisensorial experience of engagement with what the gods want and demand from worshippers. Nwokocha's ethnographic work will challenge and enrich readers' understandings not only of Vodou and its place in Black religious experience but also of religion's entanglements with gender and sexuality, race, and the material and spiritual realms. Everyone in life benefits from having their hand held to help them reach any goal. It amazes me how many people hire trainers and nutritionists to help them reach their health and wellness goals, yet the idea of working with a financial coach is a mere afterthought. Financial health is vital to creating the life you truly desire, and the magic begins once you decide to collaborate with the right financial advisor. Imagine the difference it would make in your life to work with someone who guides you toward your financial goals and holds your hand when you experience market volatility-related fear, like you may have experienced during the recent coronavirus crisis. The number one factor that affects portfolio returns is investor behavior. Most clients sell when they are scared and buy when they are euphoric about the markets. Over time, however, it's time in the market that creates wealth, not timing the markets. If you are presently enjoying the fruits of working with an advisor whom you love, congratulations! But if you are one of the many who are not, I invite you to invest a few minutes of your time and read this quick book, creatively set to Beatles' song titles. It may literally change your life. A young girl became a woman all too soon in her life. She was influenced by a man much older than her. She had a baby. In the relationship, she was abused. She developed a personal relationship with God in order to save her life and the life of her children. God brought her out of the situation that was destroying her and brought her into a place of total happiness. It's time for the end of year parent-teacher conference, and Hank's in a panic. He's afraid that his teacher is going to tell his parents that he has to repeat the fourth grade. So Hank creates an elaborate scheme to have his parents win an out-of-town trip so they're gone during the conference days. Of course, the plan backfires. Will Hank have to stay in fourth grade forever?
