Do you want to build a closer, more meaningful relationship with your Creator while fulfilling your life's purpose of connecting and worshipping the One that created you? The Islamic Ritualized Prayer is one of the essential pillars of Islam. It will be the first thing questioned on the Day of Judgment. If one's prayers were in order, everything else would fall into place. If one's prayers were not in order, you would be doomed. Salah Prayer connects you with your Creator five times a day. You must start learning and praying Salah as soon as possible. God commands humanity to establish and perfect their prayer by praying properly with concentration and the utmost humility. Every Muslim must work and practice to improve their prayer technique, which becomes a lifetime commitment. Muslims must engage in a lifelong effort to master this art of communication with their Creator. This book will help you understand what the Salah prayer is, why we perform it, and how to perform it step by step, along with Wudu Ablution and more! There are many books dealing with the Subject of Salat in both Arabic and Urdu. Many of these books are well written and provide an informative and comprehensive view of how Salat should be performed according to the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (S.W.S). Unfortunately, there are very few books in English which deal with the subject in the same informative and comprehensive way. Because of these weaknesses in existing literature in English we felt that the need existed to produce a medium sized book on Salat which would approach the subject according to the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (S.W.S). The Prophet, himself, said, "Pray as you have seen me praying." During our research we sometimes found that differences occurred between established practices in various prayer books. In these circumstances we referred to authentic hadiths of the Prophet Muhammad (S.W.S) so that the points could be clarified as much as possible. This was, because, for a true Muslim there is no greater proof for settling arguments than authentic hadiths and practices of Prophet Muhammad (S.W.S). We hope that Allah will accept this humble attempt because without His support and help we would never have been able to do this work. Finally, we ask all our Muslim brothers and sisters to study the text and to strive to pray according to it. As you'll not aware that many sites are asking for money in $. I have made this book free to all countries and in return I'm asking for you to remember me in your prayer. It was also mentioned by Dr. Zakir Naik in one of his speech that the best book to recommend is this book. watch in video:

[Abu Dawud] This book is a valuable resource for families that want to teach kids about wudu and salah in an entertaining way. It provides fundamentals of ablution and daily prayers and can be used as conversation starters. Short surahs and prayers typically recited during the daily prayers are also included with Arabic original and English translation. The Islamic Ritualized Prayer is one of the most important pillars of Islam and will be the first thing we'll be questioned about on the Day of Judgement. It is our duty as parents to teach our little ones about our gift of Salah in which we connect with our Creator five times a day. We must start teaching our children as early as seven years old as we were instructed by our Prophet, peace be upon him, by creating a positive atmosphere that encourages them to pray and forming a habit.Little Zaid's Journey to Salah takes us on Zaid's journey to how he was introduced to the Islamic Ritualized Prayer. Zaid shares the story of his first trip to his local Mosque with his dad and shares the story of how he went from praying once a day to five times a day. Zaid also teaches us the purpose of Salah, why we pray, and how to perform wudu (ablution) and perform the prayer. What better way to teach your child than learning it from a beautiful little story narrated by their peer with beautiful colorful illustrations that they'll love. The story of Zaid's Journey to Salah is guaranteed to teach, inspire, and encourage your child to love and look forward to praying and connecting with his Creator. I descended till I met Moses who asked me, 'What have you done?' I said, 'Fifty prayers have been enjoined on me.' He said, 'I know the people better than you, because I had the hardest experience to bring Bani Israel to obedience. Your followers cannot put up with such obligation. So, return to your Lord and request Him (to reduce the number of prayers.)' I returned and requested Allah (for reduction) and He made it forty. I returned and (met Moses) and had a similar discussion, and then returned again to Allah for reduction and He made it thirty, then twenty, then ten, and then I came to Moses who repeated the same advice. Ultimately Allah reduced it to five. When I came to Moses again, he said, 'What have you done?' I said, 'Allah has made it five only.' He repeated the same advice but I said that I surrendered (to Allah's Final Order)' "

Allah's Apostle was addressed by Allah, "I have decreed My obligation and have reduced the burden on My slaves, and I shall reward a single good deed as if it were ten good deeds." - Sahih Al-Bukhari 4:429 The Prophet (PBUH) has said: "Whoever guides [another] to a good deed will get a reward similar to the one who performs it." If they knew the reward for the 'Isha' and the Fajr prayers in congregation, they would join them even if they had to crawl. If they knew the re- ward for the first row, they would draw lots for it." Saheeh bukhari "The two (sunnah) rak'ats of Fajr are more superior than the world and everything within it." (Sahih Muslims 1:251) "Invite to the Way of your Lord (i.e. Islam) with wisdom (i.e. with the Divine Revelation and the Qur'an) and fair preaching, and argue with them in a way that is better. Be just: that is nearer to piety (Quran, 5:8) The Prophet Muhammad said: {People, beware of injustice, for injustice shall be darkness on the Day of Judgment. Hadrat Abdullah Ibn Masud (may Allah be pleased with him) said that he enquired of the Prophet (may Allah's blessings and peace be upon him) what was the best deed in the sight of Allah. The Prophet (may Allah's blessings and peace be upon him) replied, "To say prescribed prayers at stated hours." I asked what was the next best. He said, "To be good to parents." I again asked what deed ranked next. He said, "To do Jihad struggle in the way of Allah." (Bukhari, Muslim) The five daily prayers (Salat) that constitute the second pillar of Islam deeply pervade the everyday life of observant Muslims. Until now, however, no general study has analyzed the rules governing Salat, the historical dimensions of its practice and the rich variety of ways that it has been interpreted within the Islamic tradition. Marion Holmes Katz's richly textured book offers a broad historical survey of the rules, values and interpretations relating to Salat. This innovative study on the subject examines the different ways in which prayer has been understood in Islamic law, Sufi mysticism and Islamic philosophy. Katz's book also goes beyond the spiritual realm to analyze the political dimensions of prayer, including scholars' concerns about the righteousness and piety of rulers. The last chapter raises significant issues around gender roles, including the question of women's participating in and leading public worship. This book will resonate with students of Islamic history and comparative religion. This would be the most valuable investments ever for your children.
