Three Bags Full Feb 28 2020 "A panoramic novel of New York State in the story of Hendrik Van Huyten and his attempt to sustain a little Holland in the midst of encroaching America. He acquired a feudal domain -- a town grew up at his gates but he scarcely noticed it -- his children strayed from the paths he laid down for them, but only one escaped utterly. From him came a strain that paralleled and disturbed each succeeding generation, until the modern generation recognized in it a vitality the direct strain lacked, and found romance as well. It's grand reading, with a period of 150 years and many generations."--Kirkus

Full Term Nov 06 2020 "Duncan Pattullo is thinking of re-marrying, although his former wife causes difficulties. His intended is also providing gossip for the college, but that is as nothing compared with Watershute, who abandons his family, conducts an affair in Venice, and is drunk at High Table. Things get very serious when he appears to be involved in treason"--Summary taken from later edition.

One Shovel Full Dec 08 2020 This book turns current knowledge about how to bring about personal or interpersonal change upside down. Using conversational writing, Fregger presents his concepts on how the mind works, how stories work, and therefore, how change within the individual takes place. (Self-Help)

Part-Time is Plenty Dec 20 2021 Churches experiencing numerical and financial decline may dread the day when they can no longer afford a full-time pastor. Freeing up funds that would go to a full-time salary sure would help the budget maybe even enough to turn things around but is it even possible to run effective ministries with just a half- or quarter-time professional? Journalist and part-time pastor Jeffrey MacDonald says yes churches can grow more vibrant than ever, tapping into latent energy and undiscovered gifts, revitalizing worship, and engaging in more effective ministry with the community. Readers get a much-needed playbook for helping congregations to thrive with a part-time ministry model. They learn to see the model in a new light: to stop viewing part-time as a problem to be eradicated and to instead embrace it as a divine gift that facilitates a higher level of lay engagement, responsibility, playfulness, and creativity.

Must Love Cowboys (with bonus novel) Nov 30 2022 In this charming, sexy romance, a bookish beauty needs a fake boyfriend and finds a handsome cowboy who is just the man for the job. Return to Big Verde, where "Bloom has invented a place we want to hang up our hat and kick up our spurs any time she's got a story to tell" (Entertainment Weekly). Beau Montgomery is living his best life . . . until he's left in charge of Rancho Cañada Verde. With his dyslexia, he'd choose a saddle over spreadsheets any day. His best hope is to ask the town librarian for tutoring. Only he's had a crush on the book-loving beauty since his junior high days—and despite being a smooth talker, he can't help getting tongue-tied every time they meet. Alice Martin doesn't regret putting her career above personal relationships—but when Beau comes to her for help, Alice decides to see what she's been missing. She'll improve Beau's reading skills if the handsome cowboy teaches her how to flirt and agrees to be her date to an upcoming wedding. But when the town's gossip mill gets going, they're forced into a fake romance to keep their deal a secret. Soon Alice is seeing Beau in a whole new way . . . can she turn their imaginary story into a real-life happy-ever-after? Includes the bonus novel Big Bad Cowboy!

Full Moon Oct 06 2020 An essayist, poet, freelance writer, and Minnesota Public Radio commentator, Susan Carol Hauser saw her approaching fiftieth birthday as an opportunity to reflect on where she had been, in order to better understand who she was at this milestone in her life. Each of her essays shares the wonder, experiences, and perceptions of life's cycles, of one year's turning - of a woman turning fifty. Barbara Van Arnam's magnificent paintings tap into the all-encompassing rhythms of life, eloquently echoing the essential harmony flowing through nature, and ourselves, as we continue on our path through life. Hauser's many peers in the baby-boomer generation will recognize their era on these pages, as they too conjure a new personal future.
