"Endorsed by University of Cambridge International Examinations"--Cover. A True and Wholly Engrossing Tale of High Finance and Treachery in Which the Secret of a Wartime Tragedy is Revealed Through a Contemporary Drama. On 10th June 1944, four days after the Allied invasion of Normandy, the inhabitants of a remote village in South West France were rounded up by a company of SS soldiers and all but a handful were shot or burnt to death - 642 in total. The atrocity and its particularly disturbing details have never been adequately explained until now. In 1982 Robin Mackness met the one man left alive who held the knowledge which made terrible sense of the massacre. Five further years of thorough investigations convinced the author that he had discovered the true secret of Oradour. It cost him twenty-one months in prison and much else besides. Endorsed by Cambridge International Examinations, Economics for Cambridge IGCSE First Edition completely matches specification 0455. Created by a team of experienced Economics authors and examiners, the course is written in a clear and direct manner, and is ideal for international school students. With an exam focus, the text prepares students for Papers 1, 2 and 3, exam-style questions providing relevant practice. Each section of the text opens with a single introductory page, setting out the Learning Objectives from the syllabus. Case studies throughout the book have an international flavour and are directly linked to the topic material. Exam-style summary questions are used to recap the Student Book material, increasing students' confidence in applying theory. Developed for the AQA Specification, revised for the new National Curriculum and the new GCSE specifications.
