L'orso Giò vive al Polo Nord, una immensa distesa di ghiaccio dove regna il silenzio, ma gli spazi immensi e il silenzio non spaventano Giò, grande camminatore e grande pensatore. Pieno di inventiva, Giò è capace di trasformare tutto in gioco e in occasioni di incontri che daranno vita a nuove amicizie e avventure. Il libro inizia con un sogno: una torta di fragole e panna che ricorda a Giò il compleanno del suo più caro amico. Giò ed Ale ci insegnano l'amicizia, una amicizia bella e buona come una torta di fragole e panna. Ho scritto questo libro pensando a genitori, nonni, maestre-i di scuola materna perché sono loro che solitamente condividono con i bambini il piacere dell'esperienza 'libro'. Per un bambino questa esperienza inizia con il libro illustrato, perché spesso le immagini parlano più delle parole, liberano la fantasia e i sogni e suscitano emozioni che restano impresse nella memoria. Ma testo ed immagini possono suggerire anche attività e giochi molto coinvolgenti da fare con i bambini. Ho sperimentato il 'gioco del pensatoio' e quello del 'retino' sui miei nipoti, e ricordo la complicità che si creava tra noi in quel momento e il loro desiderio che il gioco non finisse mai. "Ancora, ancora una volta..." E allora perché non gustare tutte le preziose opportunità che un libro offre? I libri per bambini, poi, fanno bene anche a noi grandi... La storia è indirizzata a bambini nella fascia di età compresa tra i tre e sei anni ed è corredata dalla traduzione in lingua inglese. An exceptionally luxurious, slipcased celebration of the enchanting carved capitals of the Doge's Palace in Venice Presented in a luminous perspex slipcase, with gilt edges, stamping and paper changes throughout, Imitatio Vitaefeatures close-up photographs of the Doge's Palace capitals drawn from the Cameraphoto Arte archive and selected by photographer Marina Cicogna (born 1934), who also added her own shots. The column capitals of the Doge's Palace in Venice take us back in time, revealing glimpses of everyday life in the 14th century with their depictions of life in the fields and the workshops of the period, baskets of fruit and animals, cherubs and love scenes, marital relations and family groups, and images of cosmology and astrological houses. Sculpted by unknown but extraordinary masters, the carved bas-reliefs act out ancient and fascinating stories. In 1851, English art critic John Ruskin described these large capitals as a "course of divinity and of natural history." A lavish volume coproduced by Gucci and Marsilio, Imitatio Vita brings the extravagant details of the Doge's Palace to life. Bilingual collection of poetry, English and Italian, written on the road in California from 2013 to 2015. Traveling in the light and in the desert is nothing less than a poetic meditation on the landscape as the self. We observe the space around and inside, moving in and out of dreams as of spiritual and geographical realities. Above all is the serenity and the choice to live the present fully leaving behind the problems of the past. The texts of the poems, linear and minimal, leave room for the reader to be led himself on a personal journey, as the choice of the position of the words on the paper induces to reading and re-reading during which the sense of the poem will change from time to time. Silence and vast spaces are admired and invoked, as well as the chasing of the white spaces between letters or the sandy spaces between a village and another. You can travel being still, thanks to the writing style by images. The texts collected here are a total of eighty poems, forty in each language.
