Alias is Eric Pankey's second collection of prose poems from Free Verse Editions. The first, Dismantling the Angel, won the New Measure Poetry Prize. Pankey continues to investigate the flexibility and possibility of this literary genre, the prose poem, which Hermaine Riffaterre says has "an oxymoron for a name." H. L. Hix has praised Pankey's prose poems for their "elusive and luminous sentences" and how they "take the shape of fire." Kevin Prufer has celebrated their meditations "on mystery, human sympathy, and the divine." Cynthia Marie Hoffman says of these new poems, "One has the sense that Pankey sees beyond the visible, or sees both the visible and the invisible at once." Apparel Merchandising: The Line Starts Here is a comprehensive approach to apparel merchandising from the perspective of the apparel producer. Rosenau and Wilson draw on their extensive backgrounds in the industry as senior and chief executives covering men's tailored clothing, men's and women's sportswear and activewear, and children's wear, in both domestic and international markets. This practical industry expertise and access to industry resources, combined with their experience in higher education, give them a unique perspective to create a focused and stimulating textbook unlike any currently available. This text follows the evolution of the merchandising function from its historic roots in two seasons per year and minimal style changes, with emphasis on production efficiency, to today's seasonless, consumer-driven, fashion-oriented, real time, global market. This entails a focus on product development and the philosophies and perspective of industry executives. Finally, the authors capture the interface of merchandising with the marketing and manufacturing departments and the way these functions integrate in an effective team concept. Instructor's Guide includes course syllabus, answers to discussion questions and activities, and project ideas. This comprehensive text on apparel product development reflects the current importance of manufacturers' and retailers' private brands and exclusive designer collections. Works by public art pioneers and collaborators Kate Ericson and Mel Ziegler, whose influential community-based interventions were marked by a poetic combination of conceptual and political ideas. Her speciality- scientific study of probability Are you in a relationship or dynamic with a person that can be best described as an emotional rollercoaster, toxic, draining, crazy-making, or confusing? Do you feel as though if you tried harder that eventually you could earn their love, respect, loyalty, honesty, or be treated with dignity and respect? If so, you are not alone and this book is a great place to start. This book covers: - The most common words and definitions (along with examples) surrounding narcissists, sociopaths, and narcissistic abuse, such as "flying monkeys," "hoovering," "narcissistic abuse," "love bombing," "trauma bonding," "C-PTSD," "scapegoat," and "reactive abuse," as well as dozens of additional helpful words and concepts. - Understanding the cycle of narcissistic abuse (and what is really looks like in motion). - The different ways that emotional manipulators go about exploiting your vulnerabilities. - Frequently asked questions about narcissistic abuse. - Elements to consider if you are planning to leave so you can do it as safely as possible. - What to anticipate after breaking up with a narcissist, sociopath, psychopath, or any other type of emotional manipulator. - How to find a support group and privacy concerns to consider when joining one. - A section for friends and family for how to help support a loved one who is in a narcissistically abusive relationship or dynamic. And much, much more. Little Wolf decides to do things his way, including starting his story at the back of the book instead of the front, wearing pants on his head, and playing piano with his toes. After Molly was forced to reveal the deep, dark secrets surrounding her children's parentage, there was something lacking in their closeness; something preventing them from reigniting the old fires. Although she loved Lake of the Woods, without her children, it wasn't the same! But Kelly helped her find the magic again! Kelly's 'boy dog' soon became the catalyst that triggered her nightmares. Filled with anxiety, Kelly tried to explain her frightening dreams. Something was very wrong! But, with luck, there was still time to change the plot! Then there was Adam, who appeared strong and stable on the outside, but his insides had been messed up five years ago. Finding the letter that his mother hid from him turned Adam's world upside down! It proved that his sisters were only half-sisters, and he had more siblings in Alberta - children sired by his father, and another woman. For the past five years Adam lived with this knowledge, biding his time until he finished school so he could go forth as a man, and fulfill his need to meet his 'other family'. Now that he was eighteen, there was nothing to stop him from finding the truth! He couldn't wait to reveal his identity and to make a decision about which family he would choose! Following in his mother's footsteps, Adam chose to fabricate lies to keep his mom from interfering with his decision, and he headed west, alone! But what he found there was enough to set his world spinning! Nothing was as easy as it looked!
