Journal (starred review) Collecting books can be a dangerous prospect in this fun, time-traveling, fantasy adventure in the Invisible Library series! One thing any Librarian will tell you: the truth is much stranger than fiction... Irene is a professional spy for the mysterious Library, a shadowy organization that collects important works of fiction from across different realities. Most recently, she and her enigmatic assistant Kai have been sent to an alternative London. Their mission: Retrieve a particularly dangerous book. The problem: By the time they arrive, it's already been stolen. London's underworld factions are prepared to fight to the death to find the tome before Irene and Kai do, a problem compounded by the fact that this world is chaos-infested—the laws of nature bent to allow supernatural creatures and unpredictable magic to thrive. To make matters worse, Kai is hiding something—secrets that could be just as volatile as the chaos-filled world around them. Irene is caught in a puzzling web of deadly danger, conflicting clues, and sinister secret societies. And failure is not an option—because it isn't just Irene's reputation at stake, it's the nature of reality itself... Terribly unhappy in his family's crowded New York City apartment, Sam Gribley runs away to the solitude-and danger-of the mountains, where he finds a side of himself he never knew. This romantic fiction is an imaginary picture of future world that highlights social behaviour along with a prediction of future human life. Basically its a criticism of modern Western life. It can be a young readers fantasy with its portrayal of love and excitement. The book conveys some messages while the readers enjoy reading the story. Some of the lives of some major characters are allegorical. The style contains some fairy-tale materials in the story as it proceeds with a prince escape from the palace to the world beyond. Its a journey through the experience of life. Sequel to The Invisible Library, The Masked City is a wonderful read for all those who enjoyed Mr Penumbra's 24 hour Bookstore by Ross MacKenzie, Jasper Fford's The Eyre Affair or Ben Aaronovitch's Rivers of London. Librarian-spy Irene is working undercover in an alternative London when her assistant Kai goes missing. She discovers he's been kidnapped by the fae faction and the repercussions could be fatal. Not just for Kai, but for whole worlds. Kai's dragon heritage means he has powerful friends and also powerful enemies in the form of the fae. With this act of aggression, the fae are determined to trigger a war between their people - and the forces of order and chaos themselves. Irene's mission to save Kai and avert Armageddon will take her to a dark, alternate Venice where it's always Carnival. Here Irene will be forced to blackmail, fast talk, and fight. The Masked City is a death. In the latest novel in Genevieve Cogman's historical fantasy series, the fate of worlds lies in the balance. A dragon is murdered at a peace conference, time-travelling Librarian spy Irene must solve the case to keep the balance between order, chaos...and the Library. When Irene returns to London after a relatively straightforward book in The Secret Chapter, Bradamant informs her that there is a top secret dragon-Fae peace conference in progress that the Librarian is mediating, and that the second-in-command dragon has been stabbed to death. Tasked with solving the case, Val and Kai immediately go to 1890s Paris to start their investigation. Once they arrive, they find evidence suggesting that the dragon victim might have uncovered proof of treachery by one or more Librarians. But to ensure the peace of the conference, the Librarians are being held as hostages in the dragon and Fae courts. To save the captives, including her parents, Irene must get to the bottom of this murder--but was it a dragon, a Fae, or even a Librarian who committed the crime? The Secret Chapter is an elaborate world building and snarky, sexy-smart characters!"—N. K. Jemisin, author of The Fifth Season In this third novel in the historical fantasy, time-traveling Librarian spy Irene will need to delve deep into a tangled web of loyalty and power to keep her friends safe. Irene is trying to learn the truth about Alberich—and the possibility that he's her father. But when he orders her to kill him, and then Alberich himself offers to sign a truce, she has to discover why he originally betrayed the Library. With her allies endangered and her strongest loyalties under threat, she'll have to trace his past across multiple worlds and into the depths of mythology and folklore, to find the truth at the heart of the Library, and why the Library was first created. Librarian spy Irene and her apprentice Kai return for another "tremendously fun, rip-roaring adventure" (The Fantastical Librarian)—the third in the bibliophilic fantasy series from the author of The Masked City. Never judge a book by its cover... Due to her involvement in an unfortunate set of mishaps between the dragons and the Fae, Librarian Kai is stuck on probation, doing what should be simple fetch-and-retrieve projects for the mysterious Library. But trouble is always a tendency to find both Irene and her apprentice, Kai—a dragon prince—and, before they know it, they are entangled in a danger that is more than they can handle... Irene's longtime nemesis, Alberich, has once again been making waves across multiple worlds, and, this time, his goals are much larger than obtaining a single book or wreaking vengeance upon a single Librarian. He aims to destroy the entire Library—and make sure Irene goes down with it. With so much at stake, Irene needs every tool at her disposal to stay alive. But even as she draws her allies close around her, the greatest danger is lurking from somewhere close—someone she never expected to betray her... In the sixth novel in Genevieve Cogman's historical fantasy Invisible Library series, Irene and Kai have to team up with an unlikely band of misfits to pull off an amazing art heist, or risk the wrath of a dangerous villain in his secret island lair. As Irene tries to manage a fragile Fae-dragon truce and her overbearing parents, she's given a hot new mission. The world where she grew up is in danger, and only one book can save it. This is held by Mr Nemo, secretive Fae villain and antique dealer, so Irene and Kai must travel to his Caribbean retreat to strike a deal. But in return for the book, they must steal a painting from twenty-first-century London. They'll join a team of dragons, Fae gamblers and thieves, so their greatest challenge may be one another. And so Irene must protect this painting, which hides an extraordinary secret from a past age. The Secret Chapter by Genevieve Cogman is a bookish adventure where a Librarian spy must fall in with a nefarious group to achieve her goals. Imagine Ocean's Eleven meets James Bond with a pinch of magic . . . Revolution is a bloodthirsty business . . . especially when vampires are involved. It is 1793 and the French Revolution is in full swing. Vampires—usually rich and aristocratic—have slaked the guillotine's thirst in large numbers. The mysterious Scarlet Pimpernel, a disguised British noble, and his League are heroically rescuing dozens of aristocrats from execution, both human and vampire. And soon they will have an ace up their sleeve: Eleanor Dalton. Eleanor is working as a housemaid on the estate of a vampire Baroness. Her highest aspiration is to one day become a modiste. But when the Baroness hosts a mysterious noble and his wife, they tell Eleanor she is the spitting image of a French aristocrat, and they convince her to journey to France to aid them in a daring scheme. Soon, Eleanor finds herself in Paris, swept up in magic and intrigue—and chaos—beyond her wildest dreams. But there's more to fear than aristocrats and Revolutionaries. For Eleanor stumbles across a centuries-old war between vampires and their fiercest enemy. And she's out for blood. . . . Scarlet is the first book in a wildly engaging new series from Genevieve Cogman, which reinvents the beloved tale of the Scarlet Pimpernel.
