Innovation Development for Highly Energy-Efficient Housing Mar 22 2020 In previous years we have seen a recognition of the significant potential that exists for reducing energy use through innovation in residential buildings. This study investigates innovation challenges and identifies opportunities that could lead to a rapid increase in the adoption of highly energy-efficient housing concepts, particularly that of the passive house. To this end, it exemplifies, interprets and develops the innovation adoption theory through an investigation of views and experiences on the supply side, the demand side and the policy side. It highlights successful innovation trajectories and barriers experienced by businesses. It addresses both problems and positive experiences from the perspective of the end user and investigates different policy approaches. As such, the research reveals important features of innovation-adoption strategies in the building sector. It shows how multi-player enterprise collaboration plays a key role, and the study also recommends the development of quality assurance schemes. It makes a valuable contribution to discussions about how active the role of government policymakers and enterprise networks should be.

Industrial Retardation in the Netherlands 1830–1850 Nov 10 2021 Much modern (Le. post-1750) economic history is concerned with success in that a vast body of literature focuses its attention upon the experience of industrialisation and economic growth or upon relative differences in performance once the growth process is underway. The explanations advanced frequently hinge on those supply and demand factors, perceptible during the growth period itself, which may have helped or hindered economic progress. The problem which arises with this approach is whether those forces attributed with having pulled a country forward were the same as those which, in their absence, had held it back. For example, the growth of international demand may be seen as a major stimulus in the economic development of a particular country, but its effectiveness as a stimulant may have been contingent upon the prior removal of quite different obstacles to growth. In these circumstances it would be quite wrong to attribute lack of earlier development to the absence of international demand. Thus the study of a period preceding discernible growth in a sector of the economy may tell historians as much about the reasons for subsequent growth as a study of the growth period itself. This was my initial reason for choosing to research into the industrial development in the Netherlands in the first half of the nineteenth century: that it was an interval in economic history usually interpreted as one of stagnation, of missed opportunities and even of economic decline.

Avoiding a Full Criminal Trial Aug 19 2022 In modern societies, full criminal trials are avoided on many occasions. This book is concerned with mechanisms that either divert from or speed up the proceedings. Koen Vriend argues that the fair trial rights as established by the European Court of Human Rights under Article 6 ECHR provide a normative framework that does not only apply in a full criminal trial, but that it can also be used for diverted and shortened proceedings. He shows that the concept of fairness—as derived from ECtHR case law—is a fundamental principle that underlies all criminal law enforcement. It provides for the appropriate framework to assess whether diverted or shortened proceedings are fair and legitimate. The book is intended for criminal law scholars and practitioners and human rights scholars. Dr. Koen Vriend is a Lecturer of Criminal Law and Criminal Procedural Law at the University of Amsterdam.

Duiding Welzijn op het werk - Publieke en private sector Feb 19 2020 Het belang van de reglementering inzake het welzijn op het werk neemt steeds toe. Naast de klassieke domeinen zoals arbeidsveiligheid, de bescherming van de gezondheid van de werknemer, wordt ook gefocust op de psychosociale belasting veroorzaakt door het werk, de ergonomie, de bescherming van de werknemers tegen geweld, pesterijen en ongewenst seksueel gedrag op het werk,... Volledig en actueel overzicht van de regeling in de private én in de publieke sector: Deze commentaar bevat de wet- en regelgeving in verband met het welzijn op het werk in de private én publieke sector: zowel de Belgische reglementering (incl. de relevante interprofessionele CAO's) als de Europese reglementering. Ook de bijlagen bij de verschillende KB's en technische formulieren, die van het grootste belang zijn voor de practici, zijn opgenomen. Toelichting op de kerkorde Jan 12 2022 Een geheel herziene toelichting op de Protestantse Kerkorde, met verwerking van de laatste wijzigingen. Om het kerkelijk leven te ordenen en te ondersteunen kent de Protestantse Kerk in Nederland een stelsel van kerkelijke regelgeving, de zogenoemde kerkorde. Iedereen die actief is in de kerk krijgt hiermee te maken. Om de betekenis en de werking van de kerkorde goed te begrijpen is een toelichting echter onmisbaar. Sinds de invoering van de kerkorde van de PKN in 2004 zijn veel bepalingen gewijzigd. Daarom verschijnt de eerdere uitgave nu in een geheel herziene en uitgebreide editie. Deze gaat in op vragen uit de praktijk van het kerkelijk leven en bevat ook de jurisprudentie van het generale college voor de behandeling van bezwaren en geschillen.

Nederlandse ridders en edelvrouwen - Getuigen van het Lege Graf Mar 02 2021 De Ridderlijke Orde van het Heilig Graf van Jeruzalem is een pauselijke orde, waarvan de oorsprong teruggaat tot de Eerste Kruistocht van 1099. Erkenning van deze orde, toen bestaande uit een groep reguliere kanunniken, volgde in 1114 door de Latijnse patriarch van Jeruzalem en in 1122 door de paus van Rome. De paus stelde de Orde in 1496 onder zijn protectie en organiseerde en formaliseerde haar in 1847. Sindsdien richt de Orde van het Heilig Graf zich in het bijzonder op de ondersteuning van de christenen in het Heilig Land en de katholieke instellingen aldaar. Wereldwijd zijn er zo'n 35.000 ridders en edelvrouwen van het Heilig Graf van Jeruzalem, verdeeld over ruim zestig landscommanderijen. De Landscommanderije Nederland is in 1954 opgericht en telt thans 340 Ordeleden, zowel mannen als vrouwen en zowel leken als priesters. De Nederlandse landscommanderije wordt geleid door een landscommandeur (sinds 2021 dr. Jan Krapels), bijgestaan door een grootprior (sinds 2019 mgr. drs. Harrie Smeets, de bisschop van Roermond) en een bestuur (de kapittelraad). Ter gelegenheid van het afscheid van de Nederlandse landscommandeur Michael Brenninkmeijer op 19 juni 2021 verschijnt dit boek Nederlandse ridders en edelvrouwen Getuigen van het Lege Graf. The Handbook of the International Law of Military Operations Mar 14 2022 The second edition of this well received handbook provides a comprehensive overview and annotated commentary of those areas of international law most relevant to the planning and conduct of military operations. It covers a wide scope of military operations, ranging from operations conducted under UN Security Council mandate to (collective) self-defence and consensual and humanitarian operations and identifies the relevant legal bases and applicable legal regimes governing the application of force and treatment of persons during such operations. It also devotes attention to the law governing the status of forces, military use of the sea and airspace and questions of international (criminal) responsibility for breaches of international law. New developments such as cyber warfare and controversial aspects of law in relation to contemporary operations, such as targeted killing of specific individuals are discussed and analysed, alongside recent developments in more traditional types of operations, such as peacekeeping and naval operations. The book is aimed at policy officials, commanders and their (military) legal advisors who are involved with the planning and conduct of any type of military operation and is intended to complement national and international policy and legal guidelines and assist in identifying and applying the law to ensure legitimacy and contribute to mission accomplishment. It likewise fulfils a need in pertinent international organizations, such as the UN, NATO, Regional Organizations, and NGOs. It also serves as a comprehensive work of reference to academics and is suitable for courses at military staff colleges, academies and universities, which devote attention to one or more aspects of international law treated in the book. This mix of intended users is reflected in the contributors who include senior (former) policy officials and (military) legal advisors, alongside academics engaged in teaching and research in these areas of international law.

European Women's Movements and Body Politics May 24 2020 This book examines how feminist movements have contested the dominant discourses and state politics that have impeded women's autonomy over their bodies since the late 1960s. It deals with two important facets of this struggle, prostitution and the right to abortion, as they relate to the Czech Republic, the Netherlands, Portugal and Sweden.

Antwerp Royal Museum Annuale 2013-2014 Dec 23 2022 At various points over the course of the 20th century, the Belgian State and its various ministries and provinces consciously chose to subsidise not only the fine arts but also the applied and decorative arts, and in particular the art of weaving tapestry. On the one hand, orders were placed for World Exhibitions and for Belgian embassies, and on the other competitions were held for tapestries to be hung in important locations such as the United Nations and NATO headquarters, and the exhibitions that were organized by the various ministries over the years. They provided an overview of the ways in which this branch of the arts was changing as well as representative work by the best tapestry designers. The exhibitions organized by the provincial authorities give quite a different image. There were the highly conventional exhibitions of Brabantine tapestries to promote the craftsmanship of the province and there were the more innovative textile exhibitions. Taken as a whole, the commissions, competitions and exhibitions give a good overview of what was happening in Belgium in the field of tapestry over the period 1945-1980. They also make it clear what image was being projected abroad: that of a country with rich traditions, master craftsmanship in weaving, and in the 1970s some affiliation to the latest developments in European textile art.

Sociale huisvesting in Vlaanderen Dec 11 2021 De sociale huisvesting in Vlaanderen draagt bij aan de verwezenlijking van het grondrecht op wonen voor de zwakste huishoudens. Sociale woonactoren verhuren kwaliteitsvolle en betaalbare woningen aan een afgelijnde doelgroep. Tegelijk is het aanbod sociale huurwoningen sterk ontoereikend, wat resulteert in aanzienlijke wachtlijsten. Daardoor kan het grondrecht op wonen van de huishoudens die (nog) geen toegang tot de sociale huur hebben, in het gedrang komen. Het sociale woonaanbod moet dus dringend omhoog, maar de financiering van sociale huisvestingsmaatschappijen staat onder druk. Tegelijk wijzigen de uitgangspunten van het sociale huurstelsel: de doelgroep wordt via de tijdelijke huurovereenkomsten sterker afgebakend en private ontwikkelaars krijgen een grotere rol via SVKpro. De sociale huisvesting staat dus voor grote uitdagingen. In december 2018 organiseerden het Steunpunt Wonen en de Universiteit Antwerpen de 'Discussiedagen Sociale Huisvesting'. Twee dagen lang gingen beleidsvertegenwoordigers, academici en woonactoren op basis van thematische papers met elkaar in dialoog over de toekomst van de sociale huisvesting. Dit boek bundelt deze papers en biedt daarom een interessante verzameling van verschillende visies over de toekomst van de sociale huisvesting.

Energy Law and Economics Oct 09 2021 This book offers an edited volume for all readers who wish to gain an in-depth grasp of the economic analysis of recent developments in energy law and policy in Europe and the United States. In response to waning resources and heightened environmental awareness, many countries are now seeking to redefine their energy mix. Several energy sources are available: coal and oil, natural gas, and a variety of renewables. Yet which of them are capable of addressing core energy-related concerns? Reliability, security, affordability, fairness, and sustainability all have to be taken into account. Further, once a target mix has been identified, two challenges remain for legal scholars: what role does the law play in achieving a specified energy mix, and, how can the law best fulfill that role? The essential energy concerns are just as important in defining the way we shape our energy mix as they are in defining the mix itself. An example of current challenges in energy law and policy can be seen in the pursuit by the German and Swiss governments of the so-called “Energiewende” (energy transition). These policies are intended to enable the transition from a non-sustainable use of fossil and nuclear energy to a more sustainable approach based on renewable energies. On the one hand, the goal is to achieve a decarbonization of the energy economy by reducing the use of fossil energy sources such as petroleum, carbon and natural gas. On the other, and in response to the Fukushima nuclear accident, a phase out is intended to eliminate the dangers of nuclear technologies. Achieving these goals poses tremendous challenges for the two countries' energy policies – partly because the energy transition will not only affect energy production, but also energy consumption. From a Law and Economics perspective, a number of questions arise: to what extent is it justifiable to rely on markets and continued technological innovation, especially with regard to the present exploitation of scarce resources? To what extent is it necessary for states to intervene in energy markets? Regulatory instruments are available to create and maintain more sustainable societies: command and control regulations, restraints, Pigovian taxes, emission certificates, nudging policies, and more. If regulation in a certain legal field is necessary, which policies and methods will most effectively spur the sustainable consumption and production of energy in order to protect the environment while mitigating any potential negative impacts on economic development? Do neoclassical and behavioural economics provide us with a suitable framework for predicting the market's complex reactions to a changing energy policy? This book provides theoretical insights as well as empirical findings in order to answer these vital questions.

Deontologie en integriteitsbewaking Nov 29 2020 Criminologen werken vaak in sectoren waarbij in- Prof. dr. Antoinette Verhage teger optreden essentieel is, en veelal ook de kern uitmaakt van hun functie. Morele dilemma's liggen in hun beroepspraktijk voor het oprapen. Bij elke beslissing staan professionele en persoonlijke standaarden centraal. Hoe bijvoorbeeld te handelen in zaken als: het al dan niet aanvaarden van geschenken als ambtenaar, het afwegen van beroepsgeheim en informatieplicht als hulpverlener, het omgaan met informatie als politiemans of magistraat, het weergeven van onderzoeksresultaten of het omgaan met de druk om commerciële doeleinden te bereiken,... ? In dit handboek komen deskundigen aan het woord over integriteit en deontologie, en de dilemma's in hun praktijk. Zes grote criminologisch relevante sectoren worden behandeld: politiek, justitie, de sociale sector, onderzoek, overheid/beleid en de private sector. In een apart deel wordt ingegaan op de melding van integriteitsschendingen. Dit handboek geeft aan criminologen (in spe) handvatten om met dilemma's om te gaan.

Interbestuurlijk toezicht in de ruimtelijke ordening Jan 20 2020 Ruimtelijke ordening in Nederland is een gedeelde verantwoordelijkheid van zowel het Rijk, de provincies en de gemeenten. Dit maakt interbestuurlijk toezicht noodzakelijk. Maar over hoe en in welke mate interbestuurlijk toezicht moet worden gehouden zijn de meningen vaak verdeeld. Sinds de inwerkingtreding van de Wet ruimtelijke ordening in 2008 beschikken het Rijk en de provincies over het toezichtinstrument van de reactieve aanwijzing. Verschillende provinciebesturen gebruiken de reactieve aanwijzing regelmatig om in te grijpen bij bestemmingsplannen als zij die plannen of delen daarvan in strijd achten met hun provinciale ruimtelijke belangen. Zo zijn er provinciebesturen die geen nieuwe bedrijventerreinen willen als er elders in de provincie nog leegstaande bedrijventerreinen beschikbaar zijn. Daarnaast ontstaan er regelmatig interbestuurlijk conflicten over de mogelijkheden voor intensieve veehouderijen en de bouw van windmolens. Steeds speelt daarbij de vraag waar de gemeentelijke beslissingsvrijheid ophoudt en wanneer het provinciale ruimtelijke belang een interventie rechtvaardigt. De provinciale ruimtelijke belangen zijn meestal vertaald in algemene regels die een gemeenteraad bij de vaststelling van een bestemmingsplan in acht moet nemen. Met een reactieve aanwijzing wordt voorkomen dat een bestemmingsplan(of onderdeel daarvan) in werking treedt en dit komt uiteindelijk te vervallen. Dit boek gaat over deze reactieve aanwijzing. In het boek wordt ingegaan op de voorgeschiedenis van de reactieve aanwijzing en de gevolgen hiervan. Omdat naast de reactieve aanwijzing diverse andere interbestuurlijke toezichtinstrumenten en de mogelijkheid om beroep in te stellen bestaan wordt de vraag beantwoord of de reactieve aanwijzing zou kunnen worden gemist. Tevens wordt ingegaan op het interbestuurlijk toezicht in het wetsvoorstel voor de Omgevingswet, waarin een met de reactieve aanwijzing vergelijkbaar instrument, het interventiebesluit, is opgenomen. Het boek is aan te bevelen aan iedereen die met ruimtelijke ordening te maken heeft en meer inzicht wil hebben in de verhoudingen tussen Rijk, provincie en gemeente en de daarbij behorende bevoegdheidsverdeling.

Mission AI Apr 03 2021 This open access book offers a strategic perspective on AI and the process of embedding it in society. After decades of research, Artificial Intelligence (AI) is now entering society at large. Due to its general purpose character, AI will change society in multiple, fundamental and unpredictable ways. Therefore, the Netherlands Scientific Council for Government Policy (WRR) characterizes AI as a system technology: a rare type of technologies that have a systemic impact on society. Earlier system technologies include electricity, the combustion engine and the computer. The history of these technologies provides us with useful insights about what it takes to direct the introduction of AI in society. The WRR identifies five key tasks to structurally work on this process: demystification, contextualisation, engagement, regulation and positioning. By clarifying what AI is (demystification), creating a functional ecosystem (contextualisation), involving diverse stakeholders (engagement), developing directive frameworks (regulation) and engaging internationally (positioning), societies can meaningfully influence how AI settles. Collectively, these activities steer the process of co-development between technology and society, and each representing a different path to safeguard public values. Mission AI - The New System Technology was originally published as an advisory report for the government of the Netherlands. The strategic analysis and the outlined recommendations are, however, relevant to every government and organization that aims to take up 'mission AI' and embed this newest system technology in our world.

Information and Power in History Dec 19 2019 The relationship between information and power is a relevant subject for all times. Today's perceived 'information revolution' has caused information to become a separate object of study during the last two decades for several disciplines. As the contemporary perspective is dominant, information history as a discipline of its own has not yet crystallized. In bringing together studies around a new research agenda on the relationship between information and power across time and space, presenting various governance regimes, media, materials, and modes of communication, this book forces us to rethink the prospects and challenges for such a new discipline.

Design for Wellbeing Dec 31 2020 Design for Wellbeing charts the development and application of design research to improve the personal and societal wellbeing and happiness of people. It draws together contributions from internationally leading academics and designers to demonstrate the latest thinking and research on the design of products, technologies, environments, services and experiences for wellbeing. Part I starts by conceptualising wellbeing and takes an in-depth look at the rise of the design for wellbeing movement. Part II then goes on to demonstrate design for wellbeing in practice through a broad range of domains from products and environments to services. Among others, we see emerging trends in the design of interiors and urban spaces to support wellbeing, designing to enable and support connectedness and social interaction, and designing for behaviour change to tackle unhealthy eating behaviour in children. Significantly, the body of work on subjective wellbeing, design for happiness, is increasing, and several case studies are provided on this, demonstrating how design can contribute to support the wellbeing of people. Part III provides practical guidance for designing for wellbeing through a range of examples of tools, methods and approaches, which are highly user-centric, participatory, critical and speculative. Finally, the book concludes in Part IV with a look at future challenges for design for wellbeing. This book provides students, researchers and practitioners with a detailed assessment of design for wellbeing, taking a distinctive global approach to design practice and theory in context. Design for Wellbeing concerns designers and organisations but also defines its broader contribution to society, culture and economy.

Trials and Tribulations in the Implementation of Pre-Commercial Procurement in Europe Jul 06 2021 This book aims to advance the understanding of pre-commercial procurement (PCP) as innovation policy instrument and as means to fulfil public needs. To this end, it places PCP within its political and legal context and elucidates its origins and its economic rationale. Based on this analysis, it suggests a clear conceptualization of PCP and a clear delineation from other innovation policy instruments. Subsequently, the book assesses the value and achievements of the more established type of PCP policy programmes, and draws lessons for improvement. In this context, it raises awareness of the remaining obstacles to its wide and effective implementation and suggests appropriate solutions ranging from policy guidance to law interpretation and legislative reform. The text makes use of illustrative practical examples of policy-making and project implementation in various public programmes of R&D procurement. This is a highly relevant book for academics and practitioners in the field of public procurement. Ramona Apostol is Senior Procurement Adviser at Corvers Procurement Services B.V. in the Netherlands. She holds a Ph.D. in Law from Leiden University, the Netherlands. She has been involved in a wide range of procurement projects related to the implementation of R&D and innovation procurement and regularly acts as independent expert for the European Commission on this topic.

Market and Competition Authorities Sep 08 2021 Market and competition authorities operate in a complex environment with conflicting stakeholder demands. Balancing the various interests of the authority and stakeholder in an objective and impartial manner is strategic to achieving the goals of the legislation imposed. In a fresh approach examining the actions of an authority when a regulation is applied, Annetje Ottow argues the vital importance of the behaviour of authorities, focusing on five fundamental good agency principles: legality, independence, transparency, effectiveness, and responsibility, or, LITER. These principles provide agencies and those reviewing their actions with a framework for agency design and action. Combining theory and practice to provide insight into agencies' organization and behaviour, this book outlines and analyses behavioural issues using an ecosystemic method, addressing how independent agencies should be assessed, and which principles should apply. Using cases from the Netherlands and the UK, Ottow examines the key processes of authorities against the LITER principles, and opens the debate on 'how to regulate the agency'.

Workplace Mental Health Law Apr 22 2020 This book provides a systematic and interdisciplinary study of occupational mental health legislation in seven countries. The work presents a study of the laws, policies, and legal interpretations to help prevent mental health problems from occurring in the workplace and appropriately address problems once they do occur. With a view to improving provision in Japan, the author examines the legal issues relating to workplace mental health and stress in the USA, UK, Denmark, the Netherlands, France and Germany. In presenting a comparative discussion of mental health issues in the workplace, this book seeks to establish a minimum for legal rights and duties that contribute to prevention and not just compensation. With its detailed comparative and descriptive coverage of legal and related provisions in a range of countries, the book will be a valuable resource for academics, policy-makers and practitioners working in labour and employment law, social welfare, occupational health and human resource management.

Regulating and Managing Food Safety in the EU Apr 27 2023 This book analyses EU food law from a regulatory, economic and managerial perspective. It presents an economic assessment of strategies of food safety regulation, and discusses the different regulatory regimes in EU food law. It examines the challenges of food safety in the internal market as well as the regulatory tools that are available. The book's generic theorising and measurement of regulatory effects is supplemented by detailed analysis of key topics in food markets, such as health claims, enforcement strategies, and induced risk management at the level of the organizations producing food. The regulatory effects discussed in the book range from classical regulatory analysis covering e.g. effects of ex-ante versus ex-post regulation and content-related versus information-related regulation to new regulatory options such as behavioral regulation. The book takes as its premise the idea that economic considerations are basic to the design and functioning of the European food supply arena, and that economic effects consolidate or induce modification of the present legal structures and principles. The assessments, analyses and examination of the various issues presented in the book serve to answer the question of how economic theory and practice can explain and enhance the shaping and modification of the regulatory framework that fosters safe and sustainable food supply chains. ??

Mede-eigendom 2013 May 16 2022 Mede-eigendom wordt georganiseerd en geregeld via de statuten ervan. Het opmaken van deze statuten is van kapitaal belang opdat de betrekkingen, die daarna tussen de mede-eigenaren ontstaan, zo harmonieus mogelijk zouden zijn. Deze doelstelling behalen is een moeilijke kunst, want zij vereist dat de betrokkenen er diep van overtuigd zijn. De opmaak van het basisdocument dat de betrekkingen tussen zijn toekomstige gebruikers regelt, mag niet haastig gebeuren. Het is dus heel logisch dat de landmeters-experten die een belangrijke rol spelen in de opmaak van de aandelen van een onroerend goed dat onder het statuut van mede-eigendom valt, zich over deze kwestie gebogen hebben en punt voor punt de verschillende parameters bestudeerd hebben die op de een of andere manier de bepaling ervan beïnvloeden. Dit werk wil een gids zijn voor de vakman die met deze delicate opdracht belast is.

Research Handbook on EU Institutional Law Jun 17 2022 Research Handbook on EU Institutional Law offers a critical look into the European Union: its legal foundations, competences and institutions. It provides an analysis of the EU legal system, its application at the national level and the prevalent role of the Court of Justice. Throughout the course of the Handbook the expert contributors discuss whether the European Union is well equipped for the 21st century and the numerous crises it has to handle. They revisit the call for an EU reform made in the Laeken Conclusions in 2001 to verify if its objectives have been achieved by the Treaty of Lisbon and in daily practice of the EU institutions. The book also delves into the concept of a Europe of different speeds, which - according to some - is inevitable in the EU comprising 28 Member States. Overall, the assessment of the changes introduced by the Lisbon Treaty is positive, even if there are plenty of suggestions for further reforms to re-fit the EU for purpose.

Reframing Prostitution Sep 20 2022 Prostitution has always fascinated the public and bewildered policy makers. Reframing Prostitution explores several aspects of this multidimensional phenomenon, examining different ways in which prostitution is and was being practised in different places and different times, best practices in the regulation of prostitution as well as wider social and psychological issues, such as the construction of prostitution as incivility or of prostitutes as a socially problematic group or as victimised individuals. The book also addresses normative questions with respect to policy making, unmasking the purposes behind certain societal reactions towards prostitution as well as proposing innovative solutions that could reconcile societal fears of exploitation and abuse while meeting the rights and needs of individuals voluntarily involved in prostitution. With contributions across social science disciplines, this international collection presents a valuable discussion on the importance of empirical studies in various segments of prostitution, highlights social contexts around it and challenges regulatory responses that frame our thinking about prostitution, promoting fresh debate about future policy directions in this area.
