Brings to life a group of Greco-Roman cities long lost under the desert sands of North Africa. The discoveries of these sites offer a unique view of both Africa and the Greco-Roman world. An autobiography of Moravia unusually set in the form of an interview with his friend, the writer Alain Elkann. It well illustrates how Moravia put much of his life into his books and demonstrates the literary use he made of the bourgeois world of his childhood in Rome, of his encounter with facism under Mussolini, of his months in hiding from the Germans in the mountains south of Rome, and of his marriage to two of the leading writers of his time - Elsa Morante and Dacia Maraini. Alberto Moravia's classic novel 'The Woman of Rome' is also available from Turnaround. Autobiography of Vito Raimondi. His life experieces and career as a Barber in Chicago and the story of his family from Italy. His work with the community and celebrities including Pavarotti when regularly performing in Chicago. Extracted from interviews and personal memiors, as told to Dominic Candeloro (editor) with the Italian Cultural Center at Casa Italia Chicago, and transcribed by Vincenzo Cerasuolo. Nel primo anniversario della scomparsa, l'ultimo romanzo di Enzo Siciliano che l'autore ha completato pochi mesi prima della morte: una sorta di testamento spirituale e una summa dei suoi paesaggi e dei temi esplorati nella lunga attività di intellettuale e narratore. Saverio, figlio bastardo di don Nicola, ricco possidente della pianura di Santa Eufemia, in Calabria, ha ereditato con l'inganno le fortune paterne. Soldato imboscato nelle retrovie durante la Prima guerra mondiale grazie alla complicità di un medico militare attratto dalla sua prestanza fisica, fascista della prima ora, Saverio è una classica, disturbante figura di tipico italiano opportunista, qualunquista, vitale e al tempo stesso vittima di oscure depressioni. Annotation Supplied by Informazioni Editoriali In April 1903, the steamship Republic spills more than two thousand immigrants onto Ellis Island. Among them are Diamante, age twelve, and Vita, nine, sent by their poor families in southern Italy to make their way in America. Amid the chaos and splendor of New York, the misery and criminality of Little Italy, and the shady tenants of Vita's father's decrepit Prince Street boarding house, Diamante and Vita struggle to survive, to create a new life, and to become American. From journeys west in search of work to journeys back to Italy in search of their roots, to Vita's son's encounter with his mother's home town while serving as an army captain in World War II, Vita touches on every aspect of the heartbreaking and inspiring immigrant story. The award-winning Italian author Melania G. Mazzucco weaves her own family history into a great American novel of the immigrant experience. A sweeping tale of discovery, love, and loss, Vita is a passionate blend of biography and autobiography, of fantasy and fiction. On reel with Barbi, M. Dante nel cinquecento. Includes section "Reviews". This book is a treasure house of Italian philosophy. Narrating and explaining the history of Italian philosophers from the Middle Ages to the twentieth century, the author identifies the specificity, peculiarity, originality, and novelty of Italian philosophical thought in the men and women of the Renaissance. The vast intellectual output of the Renaissance can be traced back to a single philosophical stream beginning in Florence and fed by numerous converging human factors. This work offers historians and philosophers a vast survey and penetrating analysis of an intellectual tradition which has heretofore remained virtually unknown to the Anglophonic world of scholarship. Italia: Civiltà e Cultura offers a comprehensive description of historical and cultural development on the Italian peninsula. This project was developed to provide students and professors with a flexible and easy-to-read reference book about Italian civilization and cultural studies, also appropriate for cinema and Italian literature classes. This text is intended for students pursuing a minor or a major in Italian studies and serves as an important learning tool with its all-inclusive vision of Italy. Each chapter includes thematic itineraries to promote active class discussion and textual comprehension check-questions to guide students through the reading and understanding of the subject matter.
