Il bosco dai mille occhi Jul 09 2021 Narrativa - racconto lungo (29 pagine) - Un intrigante mistero che pare avere il suo epicentro nel terrificante bosco al di fuori della città di Arkham. L'aspirante scrittore Stanley Hawking si reca ad Arkham in cerca di ispirazione per le sue storie fantastiche. In seguito a una richiesta del suo amico d'infanzia Charles Jones, si trova a dover risolvere l'inquietante mistero che circonda la moglie di Charles, accusata della scomparsa di un bambino. Stanley, assieme alla giovane professoressa Sarah Armitage, figlia del famoso professor Henry Armitage, deve svelare uno spaventoso mistero che sembra avere il suo epicentro nel terrificante bosco al di fuori della città di Arkham. Nato nel 1991, Davide Del Monaco vive a Taranto dove ha raggiunto la maturità scientifica. Lavora presso un'associazione di volontariato che si occupa di doposcuola e ripetizioni per bambini e ragazzi. Ha iniziato a scrivere ispirato dai racconti di Arthur Conan Doyle e Agatha Christie, cercando di ampliare sempre la propria conoscenza dei generi letterari, nella speranza di riempire i suoi racconti di diverse sfaccettature. Dopo numerose idee ha deciso di partecipare ad alcuni concorsi tra cui quello bandito dalla casa editrice online Wizards & Blackholes e allo Sherlock Magazine Award 2015, bandito dall'omonima rivista.

degli anni Cinquanta, il giovane Amos Tutuola spedì il suo primo manoscritto a un indirizzo che aveva trovato su un annuncio apparso in un giornale locale. Con ulteriore passaggio, il manoscritto arrivò all'editore Faber and Faber: per questa via improbabile l'immortale spirito della favola tornava a parlare. Dylan Thomas riconobbe subito quel tono, quella meraviglia – e salutò il primo libro di Tutuola con una recensione entusiastica sull'«Observer». Da allora la letteratura, che oggi ama chinarsi a riflettere sulla favola ma ben poche favole riesce a creare, è accompagnata dalla voce di un amabile, imprevedibile trickster, che continua a raccontarci le sue avventure nelle innumerevoli Città degli Spiriti, contrassegnate ciascuna, con deliziosa ironia, da un numero romano. Ogni favola è il racconto mascherato di una iniziazione, e ogni iniziazione è un viaggio: qui sarà la lunga ricerca, fra terrori e stupori, dello spillatore di vino di palma, compagno perso nella Città dei Morti e alla fine ritrovato, come una promessa di felicità che ci fanno balenare l'inesauribile fluire del vino di palma o i prodigi di un uovo magico. E sarà anche la lunga fuga nel Bosco degli Spiriti di un bambino che non sa ancora «il significato di “male” e di “bene”» e subito deve sfuggire all'odio, che si manifesta nel rumore, per lui affascinante, dei fucili di guerra. Dal «gentiluomo completo» alla «madre-dagli-occhi-lampeggianti», dalla «Super lady» agli «spiriti-che-mangiano-i-ragni», dagli «Spiriti-puzzolenti» alle «Creature rosse», uno sciame di figure terrificanti, incantatorie e comiche ci viene qui incontro, e le loro voci si mescolano nella foresta come sulla piazza di un immane mercato. Alla fine del viaggio, ritrovato il sapore dei propri luoghi, da lungo tempo abbandonati, dove l'eroe torna dopo le sue vertiginose peripezie, rimarrà comunque, in noi come in lui, una nostalgia di quel pauroso, spesso torturante, sempre stupefacente Bosco degli Spiriti dove «le “pene”, i “dolori”, le “difficoltà” e tutte le specie di “punizioni”, ecc. cominciano e finiscono» e tutto è di nuovo toccato dalla giocosità del nominare. "Il bevitore di vino di palma", suo primo libro, fu pubblicato a Londra nel 1952; il secondo, "La mia vita nel bosco degli spiriti", apparve nel 1954.

*Caterina Cornaro Oct 24 2022 Caterina Cornaro (1454-1510) came from one of the most important Venetian families of her time and became the last queen of Cyprus. On the occasion of the fifth centenary of her death, an international conference was held in Venice in September 2010 - organised by the two editors of this volume. During that interdisciplinary event, well-known scholars from the fields of history, art history, literary history, archaeology, Byzantine studies and musicology presented the results of their most recent research across a broad subject area. The queen's biography and myth were traced, as well as the reception of this historical figure in art and on stage. Stress was laid upon socioeconomic and cultural phenomena resulting from the close contact between Venice and Cyprus during the Renaissance period, and also in focus was the literary production at Caterina's court 'in exile' in Venice and the neighbouring mainland. The present volume offers a collection of the conference's papers. The book contains the papers (in Italian, English and French) by / Il volume contiene i contributi (in lingua italiana, inglese e francese) di Monica Molteni, Candida Syndikus, Martin Gaier, Ursula Schadler-Saub, Lina Bolzoni, Rotraud von Kulessa, Tobias Leuker, Daria Perocco, Benjamin Arbel, Gilles Grivaud, Catherine Otten-Froux, Chryssa Maltezou, Tassos Papacostas, Lorenzo Calvelli, David Michael Metcalf, Arnold Jacobshagen, Angel Nicolaou-Konnari. quinto centenario della sua scomparsa si è tenuto in settembre 2010 un Convegno Internazionale di Studi, organizzato dalle due curatrici di questo volume. Autorevoli specialisti nei campi della storia, storia dell'arte, storia della letteratura, archeologia, musicologia e degli studi bizantini hanno presentato - in un'ottica interdisciplinare - le loro ricerche più recenti su un vasto ambito tematico. Questi atti ne raccolgono i risultati. Si ripercorre la biografia e il mito della regina Cornaro nonché la ricezione della figura storica nell'arte e sul palcoscenico. Vengono inoltre messi in risalto vari fenomeni socioeconomici e culturali nello stretto contatto tra Venezia e Cipro durante il periodo del Rinascimento. Infine, viene presa in considerazione la produzione letteraria alla sua corte 'in esilio' a Venezia e in Terraferma.

Italian Historical Rural Landscapes Sep 23 2022 Sustainable development and rural policies have pursued strategies where farming has been often regarded as a factor deteriorating the ecosystem. But the current economic, social and environmental problems of the Earth probably call for examples of a positive integration between human society and nature. This research work presents more than a hundred case studies where the historical relationships between man and nature have generated, not deterioration, but cultural, environmental, social and economic values. The results show that is not only the economic face of globalization that is negatively affecting the landscape, but also inappropriate environmental policies. The CBD-UNESCO program

The Living Theatre Jun 20 2022 In this first US publication of celebrated Italian poet Bianca Tarozzi, narrative poems (presented bilingually in both English and the original Italian) carry us through the poet's childhood memories of World War II under Mussolini, harsh post-war conditions, and mid-century changes that transformed Italian life, specifically for women. A unique figure in contemporary Italian poetry, Tarozzi draws significant influence from acclaimed American poets—Robert Lowell, Elizabeth Bishop, and James Merrill—interweaving powerful subjects with humor and heart. After: you have packed the suitcase, shut off the gas, turned all the lights out, locked the window and the big outside door, when you lean against a wall, afraid of falling, and wait, expecting the vehicle, the means that will transport you far away, when the sky sails clear, blue, and annihilating above the overpass, and you have no past or future, in that empty moment poetry pitches its tent.

Bianca Tarozzi was born in Bologna in 1941. Her father was a political prisoner under Mussolini, and then a Senator after the war. She received a degree from Ca' Foscari University of Venice, and taught English and American Literature for many years at the University of Verona. The recipient of numerous literary honors, she has translated into Italian the works of Elizabeth Bishop, Emily Dickinson, James Merrill, Richard Wilbur, A. E. Housman, Denise Levertov, and Louise Gluck. Also the author of many books of poetry, she began writing poems in 1947, and continues to this day. She currently splits her time between Venice and Milan, Italy.

The Po Jan 15 2022 A captivating journey along the iconic River Po and through Italian history, society and culture. 'Delightful... A wonderful cornucopia of history' TLS 'Uncovers the Po's fascinating history' Guardian 'Tobias Jones is the perfect guide' Spectator The Po is the longest river in Italy, travelling for 652 kilometres from one end of the country to the other. It rises by the French border in the Alps and meanders the width of the entire peninsula to the Adriatic Sea in the east. Flowing next to many of Italy's most exquisite cities – Ferrara, Mantova, Parma, Cremona, Pavia and Torino – the river is a part of the national psyche, as iconic to Italy as the Thames is to England or the Mississippi to the USA. For millennia, the Po was a vital trading route and a valuable source of tax revenue, fiercely fought over by rival powers. It was also moat protecting Italy from invaders from the north, from Hannibal to Holy Roman Emperors. It breached its banks so frequently that its floodplain swamps were homes to outlaws and itinerants, to eccentrics and experimental communities. But as humans radically altered the river's hydrology, those floodplains became important places of major industries and agricultures, the source of bricks, timber, silk, hemp, cement, caviar, mint, flour and risotto rice. Tobias Jones travels the length of the river against the current, gathering stories of battles, writers, cuisines, entertainers, religious minorities and music. Both an ecological lament and a celebration of the resourcefulness and resilience of the people of the Po, the book opens a window onto a stunning, but now neglected, part of Italy.

Central to the concept is the acknowledgement that student's feelings about themselves as learners and about their academic subjects can be at least as influential as their actual ability. This collection features the work of contributors from countries such as Belgium, Denmark, Russia, Germany, Israel, Spain and the UK. It shows how the practical approach to affective education varies from nation to nation. By analyzing the underlying theory, this text sets out to bring the different approaches closer*

This collection gathers together a stellar group of contributors offering innovative perspectives on the issues of language and translation in postcolonial studies. In a world where bi- and multilingualism have become quite normal, this volume identifies a gap in the critical apparatus in postcolonial studies in order to read cultural texts emerging out of multilingual contexts. The role of translation and an awareness of the multilingual spaces in which many postcolonial texts are written are fundamental issues with which postcolonial studies needs to engage in a far more concerted fashion. The essays in this book by contributors from Australia, New Zealand, Zimbabwe, Cyprus, Malaysia, Quebec, Ireland, France, Scotland, the US, and Italy outline a pragmatics of language and translation of value to scholars with an interest in the changing forms of literature and culture in our times. Essay topics include: multilingual textual politics; the benefits of multilingual education in postcolonial countries; the language of gender and sexuality in postcolonial literatures; translational cities; postcolonial calligraphy; globalization and the new digital ecology.
