Reprint of the original, first published in 1871. The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints. Due to their age, these books may have missing

Living on the Right Side of Zero is an inspirational intertwining of personal experiences, coping strategies, and spirituality, with a New Age twist. It is a no-nonsense self-help approach to living at peace with your circumstances, addressing the many types of spiritual pollution you encounter on a daily basis and what you can do about it, and how to shift your mindset from the view of God as a punitive giver of ultimatums to that of a loving consciousness that is personal and accessible. Not only will it help shift the energy in your life to the positive side, but it will also assist you in learning to intuit and interpret the messages you receive in your life that arrive to assist you.
