Catechist's Manual

The Catechists Manual is part of the ON THE JOURNEY series of books intended to be used for the Order of Christian Initiation in the Roman Catholic Church. This Manual is designed to be a practical help to the catechist by offering a structured way of preparing for and presenting the catechetical portion of an RCIA session. Together with the companion Participants Book, this Manual should enable catechists to prepare thoroughly for each teaching and to present the faith both systematically and organically. This book contains 60 doctrinal lesson plans, with full Scripture and Catechism references. For each of the lesson plans, the manual also contains at least five suggested hymns, a Liturgy of the Word, suggested discussion questions, definitions of key terms, and suggested prayers. Excerpt from A Manual of Useful Knowledge: Containing, a Catechetical Treatise on the Law of Nature, National Law, Municipal Law, Criminal Law, Moral Law, Government, the Making of Laws, the Ten Commandments, Religion, Manners, Notices, Facts and Opinions Connected With the Acquisition of Knowledg The Author presents the manual or useful knowledge, in a catechetical form, for the instruction of the learner in those things which pertain to his conduct in every day life. It was originally designed as an adjunct in moral instruction to The Guide Book, which was published and the first edition has been sold. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works. By teaching young people to pray, you can open for them a way to communicate on a deeply personal level with God, who is the source of all holiness. By inviting them to explore different forms of personal prayer, you will encourage them to expand their image of God and their expectations of prayer. By challenging them to look at communal prayer, you will remind them that their role in building God's Reign and as a part of the Body of Christ is important, unique, and valued. This manual can help you give young people the tools to pray all ways, and always, and enable them to build their relationship with God on a solid foundation. This ... faith formation program introduces young Catholic adolescents to Jesus Christ in a new way and inspires them to follow him. Fostering the faith of young adolescents involves helping them to make connections between the Catholic faith and everyday life.

Catechesis and Catechisms The catechism is a clear, concise exposition of the basic essentials of our Catholic Faith. By a living tradition, carried from centuries past to the present, the catechism is taught first to children by their parents within the heart of the family and later by teachers in schools. Since it is the deposit of the essentials of our Faith, the very bedrock of our principles and convictions, we continue to learn the catechism throughout our lives as sincere and maturing Catholics, who want to know and live what is required of us as children of God, heirs of heaven and followers of Jesus Christ. Learning the catechism - that is, learning the Faith in order to live it - is called catechesis. As such, catechesis is truly the effort of a lifetime, an effort that happily begins and is sustained with God's help, an effort that asks of us only the sincerity of our Faith and the courage of our cooperation. Catechesis for our time - as for all time - gives full and rightful place to God and man: to man's creation by God, man's sin and defiance of God; to God's plan of Redemption, its long and loving preparation and realization; to the Incarnation of the Son of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, Jesus Christ, who is true God and true man; to the Blessed Virgin Mary, sinless, immaculate, chosen by God to be the Mother of Jesus, therefore the Mother of God, who was raised body and soul to heaven; to her role in our salvation as our Mother and Mediatrix; to the mystery of lawlessness in our lives and the power of God saving us from our human weakness and condition; to the need for penance and for struggle toward sanctity; to the supernatural aid of the Sacraments, which confer grace, God's own life in us; to the reality of the presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist; to our participation in the divine life of grace here and hereafter, in the resurrection of the dead and life everlasting, face to face with God. This - in full - is the deposit of the Faith.

Catechesis: Learning Christ, Being Taught by Christ, Following Christ At the very heart of catechesis, in its essence is a Person, the Person of Jesus of Nazareth, true God and true man. "Accordingly, the definitive aim of catechesis is to put people not only in touch, but in communion, in intimacy with Jesus Christ. ' ' So states Pope John Paul II in his apostolic exhortation, on catechesis in our time, Catechesi Tradendae. ' 'We must therefore say that in catechesis, it is Christ, the Incarnate Word and Son of God, who is taught - everything else is taught with reference to Him - and it is Christ alone who teaches. . ." (cf. CT, nos. 5-6)

Learning Christ, being taught by Christ, following Christ, this is catechesis. To think like Christ, to judge like Christ, to act according to His commandments and to love as He invites us to love - this is specific and authentic catechesis. Sitting at the feet of Christ the Teacher who reveals God to man and man to himself, listening to the Teacher who saves, guides, inspires, judges and forgives, who lives and goes with us day by day - this is living catechesis. Catechesis for Adults: Parents, Educators and Pastors For the Christian, catechesis is the very condition of growing, maturing and fulfilling himself in the Faith. Understandably then, the catechesis of adults is the principal form of catechesis, for it is directed to persons with the greatest responsibility and capacity to live the Faith, to attest and abide by their loyalty to Jesus Christ to say to Him with ever-deepening knowledge and will: Yes, I believe in You. Yes, I follow You and abide by You. (cf. CT, no. 43) For adult Christians who are parents, their commitment to Christ leads them to be their own children's catechists. Education in the Faith by parents begins from the children's tenderest age and continues throughout their family life through the witness of their Christian lives. Joe Paprocki, best-selling author of The Catechist's Toolbox, has written the first step-by-step book that demonstrates how you can teach a 75-minute catechetical session with practical techniques that expand upon the textbook to create a more prayerful and experiential climate in the classroom. While textbooks are an essential tool for catechists to present the teachings of the Catholic Church in a clear and accurate manner, Beyond the Catechist's Toolbox gives you the framework to guide your students toward personal transformation. By using Catholic rituals, prayers, and the Liturgy of the Word, Paprocki provides suggestions on how to get catechesis to resemble Mass more than class. Reading a textbook can help children know about God, and Beyond the Catechist's Toolbox helps them know God personally as they prayerfully become lifelong disciples of Jesus Christ. Catechetical Sessions on Christian Morality is a rich course that gives young people a solid grounding in the foundations of Christian morality, to add to what they have already received in their faith community and in their family. The manual presents young people with the fundamental concerns of the moral life in a Catholic Christian context. Above all, the course is an invitation to young people to build God's Reign by loving themselves and others as God loves them. In other words, it is an invitation to become holy, healthy, and happy. In doing so, they will bring God and the world together! The focus of Catechetical Session on the Creed is on understanding the treasure, the gifts, and the sacrament that is Church. The young people are supported as they grow in their faith and in their knowledge about the basic truths that Catholics profess. They will be encouraged to make the mission of the Church their own and challenged to set their heart on all that is good, holy, and true about being a young Catholic in the world today.
