Receiving the Day May 27 2020 Embrace time as a gift--not an obstacle Receiving the Day invites us to open the gift of time, to dwell in the freedom to rest and worship that God intends for us and for all creatures. In this book, Dorothy C. Bass shows how Christian practices for rest and worship continually welcome us into a way of life attuned to the love of God, neighbor, earth, and self. Bass does not aim to provide clear instructions for creating a schedule that solves all our puzzles about how to live in time. Rather, convinced that Christian faith bears great wisdom about time, Bass offers an account of the weekly practice of keeping sabbath, along with other practices by which Christians have sought to live faithfully in time. These practices have been lived by diverse communities of faith across centuries and cultures. Through them, we can learn to dwell more graciously, attentively, and faithfully within the hours and days we have. We can also learn to share the gift of time gladly and gratefully with others, in and for this world God loves.

The Art of RECEIVING Jun 08 2021 Your ability to receive more prosperity, love and joy is directly related to how much and how well you can receive! Here's a fun story of how one youth learned how to "receive"... Zachary was around six. He constantly received compliments from people around him, even strangers. "You have such a great smile." "You are so smart." "I like how helpful you are." Zach's mother noticed people appreciating her son. She sensed that he didn't fully appreciate what they were saying. So, she asked him, "Now, Zach, how far into your body did you take that compliment?" "Well, about here," he would reply shyly, pointing to his throat. "I invite you to take it all the way down into your toes," she would invite him. "O.K.," Zach replied, stopping what he was doing for a moment. He concentrated and let the appreciation drop all the way to his toes. When the appreciation appeared to land fully in his little body (all the way down to his toes), it was palpable to everyone around him. He started beaming. Begin practicing Zach's "taking appreciations all the way down to my toes" on a regular basis. Invite your friends and clients to do so as well. All it takes is practice to get good at receiving positive energy! In this book, you'll learn 30 secrets like this to stretch and strengthen your "receiving" muscles!

God and Choice and Life or Death Nov 25 2022 I define this choice as an established, intangible mechanism at the core of our being, which our will for our lives through the spoken word of our mouths activates. This choice is sometimes ignored and/or unrecognized; however, it is always present and available to us. Its purpose is to deliver us (our spirit man) into the hands of freedom, a place within us where we are always safe, where we are sane, and where we recognize the greatness that is within us through Christ Jesus, our Lord. This is not the freedom of footloose, wild, and fancy free, but it is the freedom of kings and priests. This freedom enables our responsible right. We understand that God is responsible and the only right (Deut. 32:4), and only through Him can anyone obtain rights. No one has the right or God on his side to do anything unless it is through Him. This is the basis of truth. In John 8:31-32, Jesus said, If you continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. First, He instructs us to continue. We cannot pick up the Word of God and put it down with yet still the expectation of receiving what it says. Our continuance in the Word is the key to our forthcoming knowledge and revelation. Jesus said, Then are ye my disciples indeed. Disciples are disciplined ones that recognize the order of God and will themselves to carry it out. These orders carried out are the physical evidence of the disciplined spirits, willed from the soul (mind). This is the order of God. When your spirit (heart) is disciplined toward God, your soul wills your body to follow through.

The Art of Receiving and Giving Oct 13 2021 Why would most people endure unwanted or unsatisfying touch, rather than speak up for their own boundaries and desires? It's a question with a myriad of answers - and one that Dr. Betty Martin has explored in her 40+ years as a hands-on practitioner, first as a chiropractor and later as a Somatic Sex Educator, Certified Surrogate Partner and Sacred Intimate. In her client sessions, she noticed a pattern wherein many clients would "allow" or go along with discomfort or unease rather than speak up for what they wanted or didn't want. Betty discovered there was a major component missing for people -- the confidence that we have a choice about what is happening to us. In her framework, "The Wheel of Consent(R)" Betty traces the fundamental roots of consent back to our childhood conditioning. As children, we are taught that to be "good" we must ignore our body's discomfort and be compliant: to finish our food even if we're full, to go to bed - even if we're not tired, to let relatives hug and kiss us even if we don't want to. We learn that our feelings don't matter more than what is happening, and that we don't have a choice but to go along, whether or not we want it. As adults, this conditioning remains with us until we have an opportunity to unlearn it, which is why consent violations are often only called out after the violation has occurred - because we have not been taught or empowered to notice our boundaries, much less value or express our internal signals as the unwanted action is happening. In this book, Betty guides the reader through the Wheel of Consent framework, and shares practices to help us recover the ability to notice what we want and set clear boundaries. While the practices are based on exchanges of touch, they can also be learned without touch. In these practices, we discover that the Art of Giving includes knowing our own limits so we can be more generous within those limits, and not give beyond our capacity - a common problem which creates feelings of resentment or martyrdom. We also discover that the Art of Receiving invites us to notice and ask for what we really want, and not just what we think we are supposed to want. This knowledge, and its embodied practice, is foundational for creating clear agreements and bringing more satisfaction into relationships. While much of consent education focuses on noticing what we don't want, or prevention of violation, Betty has developed a "pleasure-forward" approach to teaching consent. By first accessing and awakening (sometimes re-awakening) our bodies' relationship to pleasure and what we want, we can practice noticing and verbalizing what we don't want. Such an approach provides a more holistic frame in which to unlearn the childhood conditioning that taught us to be silent and compliant, and in which individuals can learn to ask for what they want and state what they don't, in a more empowered way. The implications of this approach to consent education extends beyond touch and intimate relationships. When we forget how to notice what we really want, we lose our inner compass. When we continue to go along with things we don't feel are right, we lose our ability to speak up against injustice. This has a profound effect on society. We allow all manner of inequality, corruption, theft of natural resources and our planet's future health - because "going along with it" feels normal. The Wheel of Consent offers a deeply nuanced way to practice consent as an agreement that brings integrity, responsibility, and empowerment into human interaction, starting with touch and relationships, and further expanding our understanding of consent to social issues of equality and justice.

According to Your Faith: How to Receive God's Promises and Believe Him for More Mar 06 2021 Christians often want to believe God for more. We know nothing is too hard for Him, but we don't always know how to receive from God and have unwavering faith for His promises. This book guides Christians through the process of receiving God's promises and breaking through the barrier that hinders us from believing Him for more. Jesus Christ said in Matthew 9:29 that everything will be done for us according to the trust and confidence we have in His power and ability. The detailed steps on how to have faith that gets results include: Meditating on God's promises. Confessing God's Word over your situation. Receiving the promises when you pray. Giving thanks to God. None of these steps will work unless we first build confidence in God and believe it's His will to bless us. To get effective result, we need to humbly submit to His way of doing things and not allow ourselves to harden our hearts against Him.

Receiving Your Portion Dec 27 2022 If you desire your portion from God, then you must ask like Agur did-with a spirit of sincerity, seeking only what you need. Agur realized that there is a possibility that too much wealth could create a prideful memory lapse, causing him to forget the source of his riches. He knew that would be disastrous for his spiritual health. He also knew the greatest wealth consists of having the presence of God, the power of God, and the peace of God prevalent in one's life. Agur was confident God would give him exactly what he needed. He let it be known to God, however, "In the process of giving me my portion, don't let it be too small where I would be forced to steal and bring disgrace to your holy name." There's nothing wrong in letting God know that it is not your desire to be filthy rich, and neither is it your desire to be filthy poor. It is, however, your desire that he will meet your every need in such a manner that you will be able to please Him in all that you do so that His name will be glorified in you and through you. Every page of Receiving My Portion is written to assist you in a daily devotion of encouragement and thanksgiving, knowing that you have a Heavenly Father who delights in giving you your portion - exactly what you need to walk in the victory that He has provided.

The Law of Giving and Receiving Jan 04 2021 The Universal Law of Giving and Receiving has a remarkable impact on humankind in many ways. It either allows them to live in abundance or prevents them from doing so. The entire idea is to give away whatever one earns in life, and then the Universe will return it to him after fulfilling a cycle of giving and receiving. As a result, the Universal Law of Giving and the Universal Law of Receiving go hand in hand. It is a cycle that needs to be finished. When somebody is needy, it is an act of decency to give what he wants. The strict refusal may eventually prompt the power of the Universe to prevent the giver from gifting anything. It will take away everything the person owns, leaving him empty-handed. Besides, if there is someone only interested in giving, the Universe will stop the flow of the donations as it is one-way traffic. The essence is to share what is in hand. One may note that giving something to someone does not guarantee that he will receive something in the bargain. He will probably not get it back in the same motion. One of the spiritual rules of prosperity and success is the law of giving and receiving. Because giving and receiving are two sides of the same coin, it might be considered a natural thing that stays perpetual. On a purely energetic basis, they are inter-connected. Giving and receiving are closely linked, and people cannot think of one without the other. If somebody tries to interrupt the flow of either of these traits, the process will come to a halt. Although it appears to be straightforward that all individuals give in some form yet all of them desire to receive something against it. People mostly don't know how to offer because they are perplexed by misunderstandings about the gifting process and restricting notions and concerns. They also don't know how to get over the subconscious barriers kept in between. Sometimes people believe they have been wronged and not given anything. It is common to know how upset some parents become when their children do not give a penny to them. They are so ungrateful for not giving their parents the attention and respect they need even though they have received so much from them.

Receiving Christ's Hope Jul 30 2020 After many years of writing in her prayer journal, missionary Sarah Young decided to be more attentive to the Savior's voice and listen for what He was saying to her. The result was Jesus Calling, a collection of personal reflections based on Jesus' own words of hope, guidance, and peace found in the Scriptures. Through these messages, countless people have been encouraged to experience a deeper relationship with the Lord as they also learn to listen for His voice in the pages of the Bible. In Receiving Christ's Hope, the third study in the Jesus Calling Bible Study Series, you will explore the promises God makes to you in His Word about finding your shelter and security in Him. Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you" (John 14:27). As you allow God's love to seep into the inner recesses of your being, put aside your own plans, and let the light of His presence fill your mind, you will experience His perfect peace that "transcends all understanding" (Philippians 4:7). Each of the Jesus Calling Bible Studies include devotional readings from Jesus Calling, selected passages of Scripture for reflection, Bible Study questions, and additional questions and activities to help you apply and live out the material during the week.
