It's an extreme level of gratitude expressed through "giving thanks for all things" (Ephesians 5:20). In Praying with a Thankful Heart, Rick builds on the foundational principles of faith and thankfulness to show that prayer is hearing from and talking with God. God's Eternal Family has existed since before the foundations of the earth. Jesus spoke of the fellowship and love He shared with the Father before the world was created. Jesus and the Holy Spirit intercede for us before the Father. We may not understand how it works, but there is an eternal conversation taking place, and we can tap into it, at least to a degree, if we pursue knowing God and hearing His thoughts. Rick's personal journey facing COVID, especially the time he spent on a ventilator, serves as a reminder of how fragile life can be. Yet, it is through our extreme weaknesses that we truly learn just how extreme God's presence, love, and faithfulness really are. Praying with a Thankful Heart is a book on prayer, but much more than that, it is a real-life, scripture-based devotional on living in the real world and the kingdom of God at the same time. Rick has given us a genuine testimony of what it means to trust in the One who is absolutely trustworthy. Dr. David White, The Gathering Church, Moravian Falls, NC Rick Carr is a survivor. Although he never used tobacco, he had throat cancer in 2009. It was caught early and was treatable. He's been cancer-free ever since. In late December of 2020, Rick contracted Covid-19. By January 10, 2021, his O2 levels dropped dangerously low. He was hospitalized and put on a ventilator for eight days. The doctors gave his wife no hope that he would recover. She replied, "That's OK because my hope is not in you; it's in the Lord!" She got the word out, and before long, many friends, acquaintances, and total strangers were praying for him. Rick survived the ventilator, an additional three weeks in ICU, and three months of rehab before going home. He's been called a walking miracle by friends and medical personnel. Rick writes from the perspective of a normal, everyday follower of Christ. He has learned from life through successes and failures, good times and bad times, good health, and life-threatening illness. Facing these things with faith in a loving Father in heaven, Bible study, and prayer, he has learned to embrace all things-the good and the bad-and give thanks, knowing God will accomplish His good pleasure! Published by Burkhart Books, Bedford, TX www.BurkhartBooks.com Discover the moving, entertaining, never-before-told story of how one man found his calling: to see that those who defend this country and its freedoms are never forgotten. As a kid in suburban Chicago, Gary Sinise was more interested in sports and rock 'n' roll than reading or schoolwork. But when he impulsively auditioned for a school production of West Side Story, he found his true purpose--or so it seemed. Within a few years, Gary and a handful of friends created what became one of the most exciting and important new theater companies in America. From its humble beginnings in a suburban Chicago church basement and eventual move into the city, the Steppenwolf Theatre Company launched a series of groundbreaking productions, igniting Gary's career along with those of John Malkovich, Joan Allen, Gary Cole, Laurie Metcalf, Jeff Perry, John Mahoney, and countless others. Television and film came calling soon after, and Gary starred in Of Mice and Men (which he also directed) and The Stand before taking the role that would change his life in unforeseeable ways: Lieutenant Dan in the Academy Award-winning Forrest Gump. The military community's embrace of the character of the disabled veteran was matched only by the depth of Gary's realization that America's defenders had not received all the honor, respect, and gratitude their sacrifices deserve. In the aftermath of the September 11 attacks, this became Gary's new calling. Grateful American, now a New York Times bestseller, documents Gary's dedication to working tirelessly on behalf of those who serve this country, sharing stories about how he has: Entertained more than a half million troops around the world playing bass guitar with his Lt. Dan Band Raised funds on behalf of veterans Founded the Gary Sinise Foundation with a mission to serve and honor America's defenders, veterans, first responders, their families, and those in need Grateful American is the moving, entertaining, profoundly gripping story of how one man found his life's work: to see that those who defend this country and its freedoms are never forgotten. Praise for Grateful American: "Gary Sinise writes as he lives, and as the artist and actor he has always been: with American authenticity, purpose, and a conviction that is inseparable from his nature." --Tom Hanks, actor and filmmaker "No entertainer alive today has visited and performed more for our troops at veterans hospitals and military bases all over the world than Gary Sinise. For years his foundation has built 'smart homes' for our troops that were severely wounded in combat. The book is called Grateful American, and I promise that after you read it you will be grateful for what Gary has accomplished and contributed to our country. He's truly one of a kind." --Clint Eastwood, actor, director, producer, and musician A Native American Thanksgiving address, offered to Mother Earth in gratitude for her bounty and for the variety of her creatures From the creator of the best-selling God Gave Us You comes a warm exploration of the ways parents show affection--and how it mirrors God's affection for his followers. Parents are always looking out for the perfect bedtime book to create a sense of well-being before a night of rest. Mama Kisses, Papa Hugs explores a child's curiosity about how love is shown between parent and child, with the reassurance that Mama and Papa will always love their little one. And like Lisa Tawn Bergren's young protagonist asks his mother, this question is pressing on the minds of many children: "Mama, how does God kiss us?" Mama smiled. "He kisses us a hundred times a day; although if you don't pay attention, you might miss it." "At night he kisses us with a shooting star. In the morning, he kisses us with sunlight, crawling across the fields and into our windows. On a hot summer afternoon, he kisses us with a gentle breeze. But most of all, he kisses us through our family. That's how God made us. That's how I give you Mama kisses." A bad day for little Alexa Grace is made better by a visit from her grandmother, who gives her an "Ebenezer jar" representing the blessings of God that Alexa Grace endeavors to fill with symbolic objects found while exploring with her Newfoundland puppy. Christians are called to be thankful. What we believe about God is evident in how we exhibit thankfulness for all he has done. In this book, pastor Sam Crabtree encourages us to express glad-hearted thankfulness for God’s unending provision in all circumstances. Through the daily practices of expressing gratitude—saying “thank you” to a neighbor, serving others in practical ways, or simply thanking God for his many gifts—we recognize the absolute and total lordship of God and his sovereignty over all things. “What do angels do all day, Papa?” When Papa finds Little Cub looking for angels, it gives him a chance to tell his beloved child about those that may be in their midst, even when they can’t be seen. Exploring their exhilarating Arctic world as they talk, Papa lovingly answers all of Little Cub’s questions about angels—and as usual, she has a lot. She wants to know what they do, how they look, how they guard God’s loved ones, and best of all, how they serve the Creator of the world. “God really created angels to serve him more than us, Little Cub. They love him and would do anything for him.” This uplifting tale will encourage young hearts by exploring the glory and design of God’s messengers, while turning toward him with praise. Trade Grumbling for Gratitude—Experience God like Never Before The apostle Paul instructed the Philippians to be anxious in nothing and thankful in everything. And when he said everything—he meant everything. We can all agree that this is easier said than done. Disappointments and discontent may cause you to slip into dissatisfaction, and grumbling becomes a state of mind—gratitude seems impossible to find. However, what if this is the precise reason you lack the joy of a God-filled life? Instead of a reaction to when things are going well, what if gratitude is actually necessary to knowing the hope of our gracious God? This is exactly what Pastor Dustin Crowe identifies in The Grumbler's Guide to Giving Thanks. Dustin examines the biblical foundations of thankfulness and traces how it can reshape every-day Christian living. When we express gratitude in all things, we not only praise our Creator, we also get to know Him better. With The Grumbler's Guide, you'll learn how to practice thanksgiving in both simple and extraordinary ways, even when you're tempted to dwell on the negative. You'll find your outlook on life realigned to see the hand of God in everything, strengthening your trust in Him. And in doing so, you'll find greater, more joy-filled reasons to continue expressing thanks to our good and generous God. So many people are stuck in the pain of their problems, unable to see beyond the hurt in their lives. Giving thanks in such circumstances may seem impossible, but thankfulness is a powerful tool God uses to heal wounded hearts and transform "stuck" people. In A Thankful Heart, readers will hear real life stories from people like them who have discovered the power of thankfulness to change both their inward attitude and their outward situation. Plus, this warm, inspiring book contains a Thankfulness Journal to guide readers into a new perspective and record the healing process as it unfolds. Mornings is Christina's first book. Her inspiration came from the direction and strength of the Bible. She has opened her heart and her journal to you in the hope that God's word guides you during every aspect of your life. Suzy Koch I am thankful daily for the gift God gave us when Christina was placed in our home. She has always been a huge blessing to our family. Christina has followed the teachings of Jesus, the Bible, our church, and us in her search for God's will for her life. My prayer is that Mornings will be a blessing to you and, through you, and your family as she shares her heart for Jesus with you. Christina, your love for life and all it entails defines you. Your search for God's will is vital to your existence. You are an answer to prayers, past and present. From the first moment you were placed in my arms, love was instantaneous. That love defines the nature of our relationship. You are, indeed, the daughter of my heart, if not my body. You touch people where ever you go. You help us all seek a higher ground and the straight path. Thank you for being you. Know you are loved! With much love, Mom and Dad
