One of the leading critics and intellectuals of the Victorian era, Samuel Butler produced literary works in a wide range of genres, ranging from translations of ancient Greek texts to critical essays. This collection of short sketches and stories offers an accessible introduction to Butler's body of work. 100% of this book's proceeds will be donated to two military charities: the Special Operation Warrior Foundation and the Sua Sponte Foundation. The US Army Rangers are the world's premier light infantry fighting force. This book contains all of the materials of the official Ranger handbook carried by all Ranger school students. This is a large desk-top/bookshelf (8.5x11") sized copy. Unlike other versions of this book for sale (check their feedback), this book is properly formatted with text large enough to actually read! Meet Casey, a cat who reads minds and solves crimes. Casey the cat is named after a famous baseball player, as his owner, John, loves sports. He is a beautiful Siamese, with sea-blue eyes and a sparkling gray coat, and he knows it. Casey is not lacking in confidence and has zero modesty-not only because he is beautiful and coordinated and excellently proportioned, but because he has a great gift. He can read minds and influence people's thoughts. This delightful book is a second collection of witty stories featuring the sarcastic Casey and the man who rescued him as a kitten-a man who Casey finds interesting, funny, and (most importantly) malleable. Together Casey and John listen to the radio, watch football, travel the world and solve crimes, and their antics are surely 'Nuff to Make a Cat Laugh! as Casey Strikes Again! "Mars black, lemon yellow, use muddy white. Don't forget the young blonde in La Dolce Vita. Scenes in country cafe and post orgy on the beach. She is the one Benno calls the 'Purity symbol.' Orange green grey." This and other reflections make up Brice Marden: Notebook Sept. 1964-Sept. 1967 and Brice Marden: Notebook Feb. 1968-, facsimiles of American artist Brice Marden's (born 1938) personal journals. On every page, a patchwork of clippings, drawings, renderings and handwritten notes reveal the painter's thought process and document the political and cultural events of the era. A prolific notetaker, Marden filled his journals with subject matter as familiar as references to Italian film director Federico Fellini and as esoteric as "looking at an object in nature and running lines around it." The constant throughout is the work--deliberate, studied rectangles of graphite and ballpoint pen allude to the monochrome paintings that earned the artist fame and are a precursor to the panel paintings to come. Each journal is a unique guide to Marden's artistic output from that period as well as a distinct reference to the city--at that time bustling with artists such as Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns--where he painted. The Psalms is a beautiful presentation of this beloved section of Scripture in large, readable type on high-quality paper. Featuring the ESV text, this edition is great for devotions, liturgical use, or as a gift. A narrative history of Hawaii profiles its former state as a royal kingdom, recounting the wars fought by European powers for control of its position, its adoption of Christianity and its eventual annexation by the United States. By the author of Passionate Nation. Clarence Smetters has a secret. He's been spending each day writing a Brilliant Story on the city bus on his way to and from his job. Clarence Smetters has a problem. A fellow passenger he knows only as 'Hell- My Nam-Calvi-' has spotted him, and when 'Hell- My Nam- Calvi-' needs money fast, the first thing he thinks of is Clarence's fancy little notebook. How far will Clarence go to reclaim his creation? That depends. How far will he have to?
