entries were made. Michael, in a moment of insight, saw some simple additions that would make searching for journal entries easy to do. The My Personal Journal is designed with indexing to organize your journaling. This is explained in the How to Use the My Personal Journal section in the book. Michael has been using this system for seven years in a loose leaf notebook. As he explains, he was prompted by the Lord, to bring this new way of journal organization to the journaling public, as an investment in bringing order to an often disorderly practice of journaling. This journal is also available in an eBook format at My-Personal-Journal.com. Michael L Kuhn is a husband and father of three wonderful young people with his life-partner and wife of 32 years, Trisha. Whether skiing with his sons (Mike and Erik) or preparing for a hike into the wilderness with the family including daughter Krista, family times lend themselves to writing an entry into a journal. Michael owes his passion for the outdoors to his time in Boy Scouts in Canada and Arizona. As a father of two high energy sons, joining Boy Scouts was a natural course as the church they attended had a strong Boy Scout Troop. Michael became Scout Master and led young men on many exciting outdoor adventures including a 30-mile Llama - Backpacking trek into the Colorado wilderness. Serving the Lord in such close and personal life adventures has been a highlight for Michael. And recording these events in journals has been an important part of these experiences.
