Celebrated global design firm Pentagram has produced a series of signature annual documents, known as Pentagram Papers, exclusively for clients and colleagues since 1975. On the occasion of the firm's 35-year anniversary, these quirky and influential Papers are collected here together for the first time. Each Paper explores a unique and curious topic of interest to the Pentagram designers: Mao buttons, the Savoy ballroom, rural Australian mailboxes, and the pop architecture of Wildwood, New Jersey, have all been featured subjects. Included here are not only in-depth reproductions and detailed discussion of the Papers' origins, but also an exclusive new Paper created especially for the book and set into a tray inside its back cover. Book describes AppleTalk Phase 2, which enables thousands of computers and peripheral devices to operate on a single network. In-depth coverage of AppleTalk's protocol architecture and detailed descriptions of the protocols themselves. Annotation copyrighted by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR

Introduces the basic ideas and most interesting instances of search problems. The first chapter discusses combinatorial search. Following chapters, which are relatively independent of one another, present five general types of search problems. Each subsection is accompanied by exercises, some of which are answered at the back of the book. Stresses connections with information theory, combinatorics, tree structures, order, and graphs. The Swiss type designer Adrian Frutiger decisively influenced the international creation of typefaces after 1950. His Univers typeface and the machine-readable font OCR-B are milestones, as is his type for the Paris airports, which evolved into the Frutiger typeface. All set new standards for signage types. In all, he created some fifty types, including Ondine, Méridien, Avenir, and Vectora. Based on conversations with Frutiger himself and on extensive research, this publication provides a highly detailed and accurate account of the type designer ' s artistic development. All of his types – from the design phase to the marketing stage – are illustrated and analyzed with reference to the technology and related types. Hitherto unpublished types that were never realized and more than one hundred logos complete the picture.
