More information to be announced soon on this forthcoming title from Penguin USA Buying a car is one of life's necessary experiences, and one that more often brings stress and confusion than happiness and joy. Cars cost a lot of money to begin with. Then there's insurance, licenses, maintenance and gas. Buying the right car is a balancing act between wants and needs, where the consumer is trying to offset the price of gas against buying a car with a great track record for durability and low maintenance costs. But these factors have to be weighed against the purchase price. Do you buy from a dealer or off the Internet? Are there any guarantees that your hard-earned dollars are well spent? Motormouth is the distillation of 25 years of automotive journalism, consumer advocacy, and interaction with car buyers, young and old, from across Canada. Consumers look to a reliable and trustworthy source of information, and Motormouth fits the bill. Its personable, engaging and easy-to-read style will appeal to consumers as they decide what kind of vehicle they want, what options make sense, whether to buy or lease, and go new or used, with tips, stories and enough technical information to properly inform them, and "best buys" to help make that final decision. Whether buying from a dealer or privately, Motormouth arms the consumer with the key information they need to ask the right questions, assess the vehicle properly, and cut the best deal—and maybe turn a stressful experience into a happy one.
