This book is a collection of growing up and parenting narratives from medical doctors, professors, managers, accountants, nurse, researcher, financial analyst, engineer, consultant and mentor - who graduated from the UEC High School Two Score and Four Years ago. The 10 narratives and supporting materials share the "lessons learned" and "best practices" as well as the shortcomings and tragedies from childhood to adolescence, to adulthood, into the 40s, 50s, 60s, and the golden years - which are timeless and repeated by each generation across communities, cultures and borders. The stories are intended as reference materials and transformative roadmap for adolescents, would-be parents, parents, guardians, mentors, teachers, social workers, and other parties who have an interest in the adversities, challenges and in managing growing up and parenting. The author knows well of the Power above all Powers, the Strength and Love above all Loves. Indeed he knows we have a Lord of Lords, an Alpha and Omega that always was, is, and forever shall be. Wayne relays if there were anything he would desire for readers of this work, it would be that each one facing the maladies of life could be restored as God is doing for Wayne. He also sends along the knowledge he is yet as Paul stated long ago and realizes My sinful self, my only shame. Things he would recommend to others are these: never give up! Pray and praise, dance and sing, for this is what a Christian's future holds. Agape love. JUST FOR YOU ! A Simple Lined Notebook, But the quote is Legendary Your GORGEOUS notebook is here! However, in the midst of pain, disappointment and discouraged, I can still choose to make the best out of it. How I continue to have that hope, even when I was given bad reports from scans, x-rays and blood tests. I put all my hope in faith, where Faith Always Increases The Hope. p>Seipone is based on local content with a fertile imagination. It was made to be a part of the development and education in South Africa and its neighbouring countries, as well as to promote the excellence of our African story telling talents. Our objectives and outcomes are to equip individuals with skills and appreciation of drama, screenplay and the film and television industry. Seipone is the collection of real life stories that were never shared. It is an expression to experiences and pain of the past. It is a very powerful film that will touch you emotionally; it expresses concepts like those of people who are staggered by the blow of anger, drug addiction, abuse, abandonment, death and financial problems. However, Seipone was identified and established to offer education and healing to everyone. It is to be shared in preparation to a new beginning. You Raise Me Up: Songs of Inspiration features dozens of songs that lift the spirit and provide a sense of optimism and hope to handle today's challenges. Arranged for piano/vocal, the songs range from country and pop to R&B and sacred hymns. Fr. Alban Butler PUBLISHER: CATHOLIC WAY PUBLISHING Eye to Eye: Memories of a Mayo-Trained LDS Medical Missionary is the story of Dr. John S. Jarstad. From humble beginnings as a commercial fisherman to his becoming an international expert in eye surgery and an inventor, this book tells the remarkable stories of doctors and patients whose lives were changed by faith, prayers, persistence, and hard work. Both were gifts-the rarest of the rare- offered by India to mankind. For these gifts, humanity will remain in perpetual debt which cannot be redeemed merely by paying homage by different means but by allowing these luminaries to affect us, catalyze us, help us remove all callousness, and sensitize us towards a new spiritual level of consciousness. The great Masters brought before humanity, for the first time, the most efficacious and practical methods of understanding ultimate verities and application of such verities/truths in their practical day-to-day life. The contribution of both the masters in the field of personal development and especially in the case of education of children is ideal for all nations. Both Swami Vivekananda and Paramahansa Yogananda were great masters of humanity. No, ordinary man, surely, is worthy of this spiritual title. But now and then there appears on earth one of the noble lineages of God-realized souls to carry out the plans of Divinity and establish righteousness on earth. Vivekananda's work prepared the ground in America and planted the seeds of Eastern spiritual values. These seeds were to be nurtured by another spiritual giant from India, Paramahansa Yogananda (1893-1952). Me Up. This volume of folktales from the Far North of European Russia features seventeen works by five narrators of the Russian tale, all recorded in the twentieth century. The tales, distinguished by their extraordinary length and by the manner in which they were commonly told, appear to have flourished only in the twentieth century and only in Russian Karelia. Although the tales are easily recognized as wondertales, or fairy tales, their treatment of the traditional matter is anything but usual. In these tales one encounters such topics as regicide, matricide, patricide, fratricide, premarital relations between the sexes and more, all related in the typical manner of the Russian folktale. The narrators were not educated beyond a rudimentary level. All were middle-aged or older, and all were men. Crew members of a fishing or hunting vessel plying the White Sea or lumberjacks or trappers in the vast northern forests, they frequently began the narration of a tale in an evening, then broke off at an appropriate moment and continued at a subsequent gathering. Such tales were thus told serially. Given their length, their thematic and narrative complexity, and their stylistic proficiency, one might even refer to them as orally delivered Russian short stories or novellas. You Raise Me Up centers on the author's journey of coping with his wife's passing. Anyone who has lost a spouse can use this book as a tool to recover from loss. In this book, the author feels his late wife's outstretched-blanket that helps to cope through, "Grief," "to Smile," "to Laugh," "to Respect" and most important, "to Lead." Those were her "fruits" to live by. This book tells the story of Keith's restless journey of faith, from his early days at Prairie Bible Institute in Canada, through positive encounters with Anglican evangelicalism in Australia, and into a more restful and sustainable faith. The book charts a way forward for people who feel they must choose between fundamentalism and jettisoning their faith altogether. A business classic endorsed by Dale Carnegie, How I Raised Myself from Failure to Success in Selling is for anyone whose job it is to sell.
