The Guided Mind Sep 26 2022 How is something as broad and complex as a personality organized? What makes up a satisfactory theory of personality? In this ambitious book, Jaan Valsiner argues for a theoretical integration of two long-standing approaches: the individualistic tradition of personalistic psychology, typified by the work of William Stern and Gordon Allport, and the semiotic tradition of cultural-historical psychology, typified by the work of L. S. Vygotsky. The two are brought together in Valsiner's theory, which highlights the sign-constructing and sign-using nature of all distinctively human psychological processes. Arguing that the individualistic and the cultural traditions differ largely in emphasis, Valsiner unites them by focusing on the intricate relations between personality and its social context, and their interplay in personality development. The semiotic devices internalized from the social environment shape an individual's development, and the flow of thinking, feeling, and acting. Valsiner uses this theoretical approach to illuminate two remarkable, and remarkably different, phenomena: letters from the mother of Allport's college roommate, a key empirical case in Allport's theory, and the ritual movements of a Hindu temple dancer. Valsiner shows how both exemplify basic human tendencies for the cultural construction of life courses. The Guided Mind shows the fundamental unities in the vastly diverse phenomenon of human personality.

Nature Guided Therapy Sep 14 2021 Beginning with an evolutionary history of the relationship between man and his environment, Nature-Guided Therapy takes us on a cross-cultural journey into traditional healing disciplines, such as ethno-medicine, sociobiology, and anthropology. By examining clinical data, empirical scientific investigations, and anecdotal accounts, Dr. George Burns helps point the way to healing benefits of a balanced relationship with the environment. Case histories and step by step procedures for utilizing nature-guided strategies are also presented. Designed as an immensely practical guide for clinicians, this volume contains over 80 therapeutic exercises and a variety of nature-based strategies to help augment clinical skills regardless of one's theoretical orientation. Also included is the author's Sensual Awareness Inventory to help access the client's experiences that may facilitate relaxation, happiness, and wellness. This book provides a fascinating read that can expand our views, challenge our therapeutic paradigms, broaden our clinical practice, and provide simple yet pragmatic treatment interventions.

The Rumer-Time Guided Activity Journal Apr 02 2023 RUMER-TIME(tm) stands for your ability to Recognize-Understand-Manage-Express-Reflect (RUMER) your Thoughts-Interactions-Mindset-Emotions (TIME). The RUMER-TIME Process(tm) is a relationship prevention and intervention strategy. As you RUMERIZE your Thoughts, Interactions, Mindset, and Emotions (TIME), you become self-aware, socially aware, and skillful as you relate to and successfully navigate interactions with self, others, and situations at home, school, work, and play. The purpose of the RUMER-TIME(tm) Guided Activity Journal is to provide you, the RUMERIZER, with a safe space to journey from unconscious living to conscious living. It's also space where you can write, draw, color, and intentionally think about how you can move from a place of Intra- and interpersonal imbalance to balance. With each journal entry, you will become more and more aware of and in charge of your Thoughts, Interactions, Mindsets, and Emotions (TIME) with self, others, and situations. The RUMER-TIME(tm) Guided Activity Journal was created to meet the diverse expressive and reflective needs of individuals of all ages. For example, if you are a RUMERIZER who likes to draw, there are pages for you to draw. If you prefer to write, you have lined pages on which to write. If coloring is your expressive/reflective modality, there are pages for you to color, and for those who like to solve puzzles or word games, there are those activities. Each page in this journal was designed with you in mind. This journal is a tool to help you Recognize-Understand-Manage- Express and Reflect on your TIME as you move from unconscious to conscious living and from a place of Intra- and interpersonal imbalance to balance. The RUMERIZE IT pages give you the opportunity to tell your story as you experienced it. Additionally, the RUMER-TIME(tm) Guided Activity Journal defines and explains the RUMER-TIME Process(tm) and guides you step by step on your journey to self-awareness, social awareness, self-management, relationship management and healthy decision making.

Perspectives on Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice Jun 23 2022 Perspectives on Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice examines student transitions between major levels of schooling, teacher transitions in instructional practice, and the intersection of these two significant themes in education research. Twenty-six leading international experts offer meaningful insights on current pedagogical practices, obstacles to effective transitions, and proven strategies for stakeholders involved in supporting students in transition. The book is divided into four sections, representing the four main transitions in formal schooling: Early Years (Home, Pre-school, and Kindergarten) to Early Elementary (Grades

1-3); Early Elementary to Late Elementary (Grades 4-8); Late Elementary to Secondary (Grades 9-12); and Secondary to Post-Secondary (College and University). A coda draws together over-arching themes from throughout the text to provide recommendations and a visual model that captures their interactions. Combining theoretical approaches with practical examples of school-based initiatives, this book will appeal to those involved in supporting either the student experience (both academically and emotionally) or teacher professional learning and growth.

Internet Activities Using Scientific Data Jun 11 2021 This guide is intended for the secondary school teacher (especially math or science) or the student who wants to access and learn about scientific data on the Internet. It is organized as a self-guided exploration. Nine exercises enable the user to access and analyze on-line information from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) and other providers. The exercises make use of common Internet software tools and provide step-by-step instructions. An introduction discusses connecting to the Internet, essential computer skills, conventions, and NOAA data. Nine activities cover: (1) using e-mail; (2) using finger to find earthquake information and conducting real-time conversations with talk; (3) using telnet to find space shuttle information; (4) using ftp to get current weather information; (5) using Archie to locate programs; (6) using Gopher to study the sun and using Veronica to do key-word searches; (7) using GeoVu to assess hazards (involves charting data and analyzing information); (8) using Mosaic to check the winds; and (9) using Lynx to study greenhouse gases. A brief paper describes the Internet, it's history, and it's use. A "help" section is provided for the local coordinator of hardware and software equipment. (LZ)

The Writing Rx Workbook Feb 26 2020 In The Writing Rx, I summarize current research documenting the physical and mental health benefits of expressive writing and provide some general guidance on what to write and how to write it. But taking pen in hand or sitting in front of a keyboard can be a little daunting, especially if it isn't something you are used to doing. Early on, readers asked for additional resources to walk them through some of the writing processes discussed in The Writing Rx, and in answer this workbook was created. Ideally, the activities included here should be used in conjunction with The Writing Rx. It is important to understand why we need to write and what the research says about writing, health, and happiness. That is not information you can get simply from trying out activities. To reap the greatest benefit from the exercises in this book, you need to get the backstory. If you have read The Writing Rx and want to incorporate writing in your everyday life, this workbook gives you a structured, step-by-step place to start. But please-do not feel you have to begin on page one and try every activity in order. All of these pages are reproducible for personal use, so you can use each page once or a hundred times, or you can skip an exercise altogether. Never think that your self-expression should be limited by these exercises. They are a launching pad for your creativity. As long as you think deeply about what you write and focus on learning and growing from the experience, whatever you do will have positive results. The most important step is just getting started, so get out your pen, choose an activity, and write. You'll be glad you did. Ann Eichenmuller

Reading Recharged Jan 31 2023 Refresh your approach to teaching reading comprehension with these original guided and whole-class reading activities for the primary classroom. Running out of ways to get children engaged in reading comprehension? Or are you looking to help reluctant readers discover the magic of books? This book is for you! Reading Recharged includes a wide range of creative ideas, top tips and photocopiable activities for KS1 and KS2, and covers all seven reading skills from the National Curriculum (vocabulary, inference, summarising, predicting, commentating, author choice and retrieval). Designed to spark a love of reading for pleasure, the activities range from an intriguing lie detection task for teaching characterisation to synonym snakes and ladders for practising word choices. Whether you're teaching whole-class guided reading or using the carousel format, this book provides advice on structuring your session, as well as tried-and-tested ways to run it successfully. Experienced primary teacher and literacy resource creator Alex Barton shares his top teaching activities to engage and enthuse young readers so you can teach reading with creativity and confidence.

Think and Learn (Book 1 Edition 3) Oct 28 2022 A Guided Activity Book that Prepares Children Three Years Old and Older for Preparatory and Kindergarten School This book is based on Think and Learn Book 1 that was originally published by VEA Learning, Inc. The guided activities are meant to be used by the child not by himself but with a learning facilitator such as a parent, a teacher, a tutor, an older sibling, a grandparent, or any childcare giver. They are designed to: (a) help children acquire basic skills that are critical for success in Reading, Math and Science, and other subject areas; (b) give children an enjoyable learning experience while developing basic learning skills such as motor skills, listening skills, visual discrimination, reasoning, and thinking; (c) inspire children to think, read, and study independently; and (d) let children feel the joy and see the value of learning at this early stage in their life. The Think and Learn series is divided into Books 1, 2, and 3. Each Book is a set of activities that are suited to a certain age and level of literacy. This allows the child to happily progress from the initial easy activities to the more difficult ones in the next set. As a result, he stays interested and increasingly confident as he hones his skills and improves his thinking. ~ Maruja R. Veja, President, VEA Learning, Inc. Versions of this book in other languages are all based on the latest English version of Think and Learn Book 1. The translations consist of words, phrases, and sentences that are simple yet precise, unique to the language as much as possible, and most important, typical of how children actually speak at home and at play. ~ Maruja R. Veja and Beulah P. Taguiwalo

Writing and Drawing Prompts for Kids, Volume 1 May 30 2020 Do you have a child who either likes to write or needs a little prompting and alone time to create to get going? There are both writing and drawing prompts as well as a page for games (tic tac toe and hangman) and at the end of the book are ten lined pages, ten dot grid pages, and ten comic pages with nine comic panels per page. This unique style allows your child to not only write and draw, but they can illustrate their stories and poems and put stickers around their work. Their creativity can flourish with the ability to travel throughout the book on their own, and yet, reassure them that they can get help from you if needed. Some prompts will most likely require a bit of research be done or asking (mom, dad, teacher, friend, sibling) to be able to complete the prompt. This book can be used at home or on the road while traveling or on vacation. Take a peek inside with the Look Inside feature available here on Amazon. Size: 8.5" x 11" Cover: Soft Page Count: 110 Pages We hope you enjoy our uniquely designed blank books.
