Reproduction of the original: Catherine de Medici by Honore de Balzac Under the pretense of defending an obscure treatise by a Catalan theologian, Sebond, Montaigne attacks the philosophers who attempt rational explanations of the universe and argues for a skeptical Christianity based squarely on faith rather than reason. The result is the Apology for Raymond Sebond, a classic of Counter-Reformation thought and a masterpiece of Renaissance literature. This new translation by Roger Ariew and Marjorie Grene achieves both accuracy and fluency, conveying at once the nuances of Montaigne's arguments and his distinctive literary style.

Roman. With this fourth edition of the classic that launched his career, Parker strives to maintain his unprecedented independence, objectivity, clarity, and enthusiasm in reporting on the vintages of Bordeaux. Parker has not only added tastings for the vintages in the intervening years since the last edition, but he has also retasted and reevaluated a majority of the earlier vintages. His accessible and direct style welcomes both the seasoned wine collector and the eager beginner to the pleasures of fine wine and France's most illustrious chateau. Organized by appellation, Bordeaux moves alphabetically from one producer to the next, providing essential information and an overview of the property and its owners. Parker then lists each vintage, and includes numerical ratings and detailed tasting notes for most of that chateau's wines. At the end of each tasting note, Parker estimates the "anticipated maturity"—the range of time when the wine should peak in flavor and balance—and each entry concludes with a summary of the chateau's earlier vintages. Hailed by The New York Times as "the critic who matters most," Robert Parker's Bordeaux is the most complete consumer's guide to the wines of Bordeaux ever written. "Along with the region's terrain and culture, A Castle in the Backyard introduces us to the people of Perigord - the castle's proprietor, the village children, the gossipy real-estate agent, the rascally mason, and the ninety-year-old widow with a tale of heartbreak. A celebration of a place and its people, the book also reflects on the future of historic Perigord as tourism and development pose a challenge to its graceful way of life."--BOOK JACKET.

The latest book in the best-selling Paint Recipes series takes readers beyond the quick fix with tips, techniques, and recipes for refurbishing quality furniture for beautiful, lasting results. Illustrated, step-by-step instructions guide readers through 21 restoration projects. 250+ color images. This book, volume 2 of the Encyclopedia of Keyboard Instruments, includes articles on the harpsichord family of instruments, including famous players, composers, instrument builders, the construction of the instruments, and related terminology. It is the first complete reference on this important family of keyboard instruments that predated the piano. The contributors include major scholars of music and musical instrument history from around the world. Traces a year in the life of Europe's intellectual elite in Nazi-occupied France, discussing how the chateau Villa Air-Bel was set up by Varian

Frey of the Allies' Emergency Rescue Committee to protect leading scientists, artists, and political leaders, in an account that discusses the daring escape of such figures as Max Ernst, André Breton, and Lotte Leonard. 25,000 first printing. Not illustrated. 1862 edition. Excerpt: ... meme. The same. Nous nous sommes écartés de la route. Mon ami, est-ce ici le chemin de Chartres? Non, Messieurs, vous vous êtes égarés. Il faut aller jusqu'au sentier là-bas et alors vous tournerez à main gauche. Vous verrez le château aussitôt que vous aurez passé cette petite colline. Vous voulez dire ce sentier dans le pré que voilà? Oui, Monsieur, cela vous conduira au grand chemin. Vous ne saurez le manquer. N'y a-t-il pas de rivière à passer ou bien de fosse à sauter? Point du tout. Il y a un ruisseau bien loin d'ici; mais il y a un pont qui le traverse. Cet homme nous a trompés. We have lost our road. My friend, is this the way to Chartres? No, Sir, you are out of your way. You must go as far as the path down there, and then turn to your left. You will see the castle as soon as you have passed this little hill. You mean that path there in the meadow? Yes, Sir, that will bring you to the high road. You cannot miss it. Is there no river to cross or ditch to jump over? Not one: there is a stream some distance from here, but it has a bridge over it. The man has told us wrong. Au milieu de cette prairie se trouve un ruisseau impassable. Ne voyez-vous pas le batelier là-bas assis sur le nez de son bateau fumant sa pipe? Je le vois bien. Maintenant il paraît s'impatienter. Il nous engage à nous hâter. Nous voilà enfin arrivés. Oh, le beau village que T--! Que je m'ennuie ici! Les trottoirs sont mauvais et la rue sale et mal éclairée. Je ne suis pas de votre avis. Que les Boulevards sont gentils! Et ici on se couche en même temps que les poules. Je crois que j'ai envie de jouer au billard avec le... Wrote to Mr. Ferdinand Grand about paying the interest that is due; Grand claimed to have received no instructions from the United States board of treasury; requests that Jefferson give Grand the order to pay the interest; if the interest is not paid, there will be consequences for France and the United States; the interest is due on the first day of every year; will be terribly upset if Grand does not pay. "André Le Nôtre (1613-1700) was the greatest landscape architect in France, and his work for Louis XIV laid the groundwork for the baroque style in landscaping. He defined the essence of scientific, rationalist French landscape design - in counterpoint to which the more romantic, naturalistic English tradition later evolved - by basing his work on the state of the art in optics and perspective. The château and gardens at Vaux le Vicomte (approximately 30 miles south of Paris) were begun in 1653. They are the first great landscape designed by André Le Nôtre and mark the beginning of the baroque tradition in gardening. Many of the principles Le Nôtre tried and tested at Vaux were later employed to great acclaim at Versailles, which he designed at the height of his career" -- From book jacket.

Édouard Baldus (1813-1889) was the most important French architectural photographer of the mid-nineteenth century. This book updates the use of computer-based techniques, promoting their general awareness throughout the business management, design, manufacture and operation of railways and other advanced passenger, freight and transit systems.
