Keeping the Republic Oct 22 2021 Keeping the Republic gives students the power to examine the narrative of what is going on in American politics, distinguish fact from fiction and balance from bias, and influence the message through informed citizenship. Keeping the Republic draws students into the study of American politics, showing them how to think critically about "who gets what, and how" while exploring the twin themes of power and citizenship. Students are pushed to consider how and why institutions and rules determine who wins and who loses in American politics, and to be savvy consumers of political information. The thoroughly updated

The political landscape of today gives us new ways to keep the republic, and some high-tech ways to lose it. Students are challenged to deconstruct prevailing narratives and effectively harness the political power of the information age for themselves.
